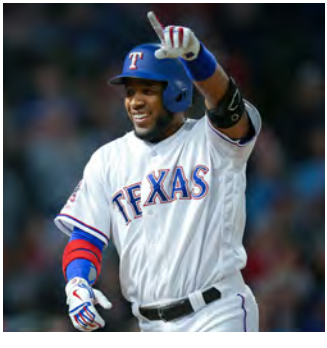
2025 TEXAS RANGERS

MEDIA GUIDE

ELVIS ANDRUS TO JOIN TEXAS RANGERS BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

Elvis Andrus, who started more games at one position than any player in franchise history, will become the 27th member of the Texas Rangers Baseball Hall of Fame in the summer of 2025.

The longtime Texas shortstop's induction ceremony is scheduled for Saturday, June 28 prior to the 3:05 p.m. game with the Seattle Mariners at Globe Life Field. At 36 years, 10 months of age at that time, Andrus will be the youngest individual ever inducted into the Rangers Hall of Fame.



Andrus, who officially retired as a Ranger on September 6, 2024, after not playing last season, had a .269/.325/.370/.695 batting line with 102 home runs, 775 RBI, and 347 stolen bases in 2059 games over 15 Major League seasons with Texas (2009-2020), Oakland (2021-22), and the Chicago White Sox (2022-23).

Acquired from the Atlanta Braves in a seven-player trade in July 2007, Andrus took over as the Rangers' shortstop as a 20-year-old in 2009 and appeared in 1,628 games over the next 12 seasons at that position. He was the team's Rookie of the Year in 2009, when he placed second overall on the A.L.'s BBWAA balloting, earned club Player of the Year honors in 2017, and was a two-time A.L. All-Star selection (2010 and 2012).

In his 12 seasons with the Rangers, Andrus' batting line was .274/.330/.372/.702. He is the all-time franchise leader with 305 stolen bases, ranks second in club history in total games (1,652), at bats (6,366), triples (48), and sacrifice hits (100), and also places among the Rangers lifetime leaders in runs (3rd, 893), hits (3rd, 1743), doubles (5th, 303), total bases (5th, 2370), multi-hit games (5th, 451), walks (6th, 516), and runs batted in (7th, 636).

The shortstop appeared in five different postseasons with Texas, including the 2010 and 2011 World Series, batting .266 while holding Rangers' career playoff records for games (42), at bats (173), hits (46), and stolen bases (9). Andrus will the fifth player from the 2011 American League champions to enter the team's Hall of Fame, joining Michael Young (2016), Josh Hamilton (2019), Adrian Beltré (2021), and Ian Kinsler (2022).

ADRIAN BELTRÉ STATUE TO BE UNVEILED ON AUGUST 22

A full-size bronze statue honoring Hall of Fame third baseman Adrian Beltré will be unveiled and dedicated on Friday, August 22, 2025. The Rangers host the Cleveland Guardians at 7:05 p.m. that evening at Globe Life Field. The statue is being created by Granbury, Texas artist Mike Tabor and will be permanently located on the outside Northeast Entrance Plaza of Globe Life Field. No other details about the statue will be released until the dedication in August. Beltré will join National Baseball Hall of Famers Nolan Ryan and Iván Rodríguez with statues outside Globe Life Field.

RAY C. DAVIS

MANAGING PARTNER & MAJORITY OWNER

Ray Davis is Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Avatar Investments, L.P. ("Avatar"), a family-owned diversified investment company. Prior to Avatar, Mr. Davis spent over 30 years working and holding various leadership roles in the energy industry. In 1994, he co-founded Energy Transfer Partners (ETP), which was then taken public in 2004. He was Co-Chief Executive Officer and Co-Chairman of the Board of Directors until his retirement in 2007. He also served as Co-Chairman of the Board of Directors of Energy Transfer Equity (ETE) from the time of its initial offering until retirement.

Mr. Davis is Managing Partner and Majority Owner of the Texas Rangers and is the Chairman of the team's Board of Directors. Since he became a Principal Owner in August 2010, the Rangers have advanced to postseason play six times, won four A.L. West Division titles and three A.L. pennants and captured the first World Series Championship in the 63-year history of the franchise in 2023.

The Rangers' three A.L. championships since 2010 are the second most of any team behind four for the Houston Astros.

Mr. Davis has presided over a period of unprecedented growth in the franchise from a business and community perspective. Globe Life Field, a 1.25 billion dollar facility with a retractable roof and state-of-the art amenities, opened in March 2020. In its five years of existence, Globe Life Field has hosted not only Texas Rangers home games but also numerous major sports and entertainment events, including three rounds of Major League Baseball's 2020 postseason, the 2020 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo, the 2023 and 2024 American Rodeo, college baseball and football, and concerts featuring many of the music industry's top performers. The Rangers' former home, Choctaw Stadium, has been reconfigured as an outdoor multipurpose sports and entertainment venue and has been the home of over 330 events in the last five years.

In July 2024, Globe Life Field and Arlington, Texas hosted the 2024 Major League Baseball All-Star Game, which culminated five days of special events.

Globe Life Field and the reconfigured Choctaw Stadium complement and enhance several other major development projects in the Arlington Entertainment District that have been completed since 2018, including Texas Live! (August 2018), Live! by Loews-Arlington Hotel (September 2019), Spark Arlington Coworking (January 2023), and Loews Arlington Hotel and Convention Center (February 2024).

One Rangers Way, a luxury residential community that is the first of its kind in Arlington, was opened to its first residents earlier this year. The National Medal of Honor Museum, located on the north side of the Entertainment District, is slated to open in March 2025.

Under Mr. Davis' watch, the Rangers have aggressively promoted the game of baseball through the construction of Texas Rangers Youth Academy in West Dallas and the Texas Rangers Baseball Foundation's completion of a multi-million dollar endowment that will provide community programs and assistance for years to come. The Rangers have also made a major commitment in facilities for its player development program, completing construction on both a state-of-the-art baseball academy in Boca Chica, Dominican Republic and a baseball housing and meeting facility adjacent to the organization's Surprise, Arizona complex in the last several years.

Mr. Davis has been active in Major League Baseball during his tenure with the Rangers, serving on the MLB Executive, Labor, and Competition Owners Committees.

Mr. Davis has offices in Dallas and at Globe Life Field. He resides in North Texas with his wife, Linda, and has three adult children, who live in the Dallas/Fort Worth area. His interests include ranching, bird hunting and reading.

TEXAS RANGERS OWNERSHIP HISTORY

Rangers Baseball Express LLC completed its purchase of the Texas Rangers Baseball Club and related assets from Texas Rangers Baseball Partners on August 12, 2010. The group is the sixth owner in the history of the Texas Rangers. Ray C. Davis serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors for the investor group.

Rangers Baseball Express LLC submitted the high bid for the club in a United States Bankruptcy Court auction held on August 4-5, 2010 in Fort Worth, Texas. The new ownership group was approved in a unanimous vote of Major League Baseball owners at the MLB quarterly meeting on August 12, 2010 in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

BOB R. SIMPSON

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Bob Simpson is currently CEO and Chairman of TXO Energy Partners, L.P. of Fort Worth, Texas. The Company is focused on conventional oil and gas production onshore in America, primarily in the Permian and San Juan Basins. With long-lived legacy assets, the thriving entity is committed to a "produce and distribute" vision for its owners with a conservative financial strategy.

Previously, Mr. Simpson was Chairman of the Board and Founder of XTO Energy Inc. During his tenure, Bob was honored by Barron's Magazine in their "30 Most Respected CEOs in the World" from 2006 through 2008. Further, Institutional Investor Magazine named him their "Best CEO" among Oil & Gas Exploration and Production Companies in 2009. Under Mr. Simpson's stewardship, XTO became the largest producer of natural gas in America, beginning as a start-up entity in 1986. In June of 2010, ExxonMobil acquired XTO Energy for $41 billion, yielding exceptional returns for investors.

As a Texan, and the youngest of four brothers, Bob grew up on a modest ranch in Cisco where he graduated as the salutatorian of his class. He attended Baylor University, earning his BBA degree in Accounting, with honors, and quickly followed that with an MBA. In his early career, Bob earned his CPA and worked for an accounting firm while he served in the Texas Army National Guard. CHRIS YOUNG

PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Chris Young is in his third full season as the Texas Rangers' top baseball decision-maker after being promoted to President of Baseball Operations on September 13, 2024. The 45-year-old Young assumed leadership of the club's entire baseball operations group on August 17, 2022, after originally joining the organization as Executive Vice President & General Manager on December 4, 2020.

The franchise's 63-year drought without a World Series Championship ended on November 1, 2023, when the Rangers defeated the Arizona Diamondbacks in the fifth and deciding game of the Fall Classic. That concluded an historical postseason run that saw Texas go 13-4 in the A.L. Wild Card, Division and League Championship Series, and the World Series, including an 11-0 record on the road.

After hiring three-time World Series champion Bruce Bochy out of a three-year retirement to manage the Rangers in October 2022, Young fortified Texas' starting pitching with the free agent signings of Jacob deGrom, Nathan Eovaldi, and Andrew Heaney during that offseason. His midseason additions via trade for pitchers Aroldis Chapman, Jordan Montgomery, Max Scherzer, and Chris Stratton also played a key role in Texas' improvement from 68 to 90 regular season victories in 2023.

The pitching acquisitions followed the signings of free agent All-Star infielders Corey Seager and Marcus Semien, who placed second and third respectively in the 2023 AL MVP voting, the previous winter.

During the championship run, the Rangers also received significant contributions from several home-grown players including third baseman Josh Jung and outfielders Evan Carter and Leody Taveras. In recognition of the team's overall on-field accomplishments, Baseball America selected the Rangers as its 2023 Organization of the Year, Texas' first such honor since 1989.

The Rangers' emphasis on player development was further displayed in 2024, when first round draft selections Cole Winn (2018), Justin Foscue (2020), Jack Leiter (2021), Kumar Rocker (2022), and Wyatt Langford (2023) all made their Major League debuts.

As part of an active 2024-25 offseason, Young and his staff continued to fortify pitching depth with the re-signing of starter Nathan Eovaldi and the additions of relievers Shawn Armstrong, Robert Garcia, Chris Martin, Hoby Milner, and Jacob Webb on Major League deals. The club also made significant position player moves with newcomers Jake Burger, Kyle Higashioka, and Joc Pederson.

A veteran of 13 Major League seasons as a right-handed pitcher with five clubs, Young joins Eddie Robinson (1976-82) and Tom Grieve (1984-94) as just the third former MLB player to lead the Rangers' baseball operations department and is one of five current baseball operations heads who played in the Major Leagues.

He was the first former Major League player to win the World Series in a head baseball operations role since Kenny Williams of the Chicago White Sox in 2005. He is also the first individual to earn a World Series crown as both a player (Kansas City in 2015) and a General Manager/Baseball Operations Chief since former New York Yankees pitcher Johnny Murphy, who was the General Manager of the World Champion New York Mets in 1969.

Prior to joining the Rangers, Young spent three years working for Major League Baseball and Hall of Famer Joe Torre, earning a promotion to Senior Vice President, Baseball Operations in February 2020. In that role, he oversaw the On-Field Operations and Umpiring Departments and served as the league's principal liaison to Major League managers regarding play on the field. He worked on the application of playing rules and regulations, on-field standards and discipline, pace of play, and other special projects. He originally joined Major League Baseball as Vice President in May 2018.

Young posted a 79-67 record with a 3.95 ERA in 271 games/221 starts with Texas (2004-05), San Diego (2006-10), New York Mets (2011-12), Seattle (2014), and Kansas City (2015-17). Originally selected by Pittsburgh in the third round of the 2000 MLB Draft, he was traded to Montreal in December 2002 and then to Texas in April 2004. The right-hander made seven starts in his first Major League action in 2004 and was selected as the Rangers Rookie of the Year in 2005, leading the staff in starts (31) and strikeouts (137), and ranking second in wins (12) and innings (164.2).

Traded to San Diego in January 2006, he posted the National League's lowest opponents' batting average in both 2006 and 2007 and was a member of the 2007 N.L. All-Star Team.

Hampered by injuries for much of the next six seasons, Young matched his career high with 12 wins in 2014 for Seattle and was named as the A.L. Comeback Player of the Year by MLB and The Sporting News.

Young spent his final three big league seasons with Kansas City, winning 11 games for the 2015 World Champion Royals. He pitched 15.2 innings throughout KC's Postseason run, working 3.0 innings of hitless relief en route to the win in a 14-inning victory over the New York Mets in Game 1 of the World Series. In 2018, he went to spring training with San Diego but was released at the end of March and retired as an active player.

Young starred in both baseball and basketball over two seasons each at Princeton University, earning Ivy League Rookie of the Year honors as a 6'10" center in basketball and a pitcher in baseball in 1999, the first male athlete in Ivy League history to win those honors in two sports. He went 9-1 with a 1.64 ERA in his two years for the Tigers baseball team and finished with 801 points, 350 rebounds, and 142 blocked shots while starting all 60 basketball games from 1998-2000 while earning all-Ivy League honors in both sports.

He graduated from Princeton in 2002 with a BA in politics after beginning his pro baseball career. Young wrote his senior thesis on the impact of the life of Hall of Famer Jackie Robinson on racial stereotypes. He is a native of Dallas and a 1998 graduate of Highland Park High School where he earned All-State honors in both basketball and baseball in his senior year. Young was inducted into the HPHS Athletic Hall of Fame in April 2023 and had his baseball number retired by the school in January 2024.

Chris resides in Dallas with his wife Liz, daughter Catherine, and sons Scott and Grant. Liz' father, Dick Patrick, has been an executive with the NHL's Washington Capitals since 1982 and currently serves as Team Chairman and Vice Chairman of Monumental Sports & Entertainment while her brother, Chris Patrick, is the Senior Vice President & General Manager of the Washington Capitals. Her great grandfather, NHL Hall of Famer Lester Patrick, was a longtime coach and General Manager of the New York Rangers.

TENURE • Is in his fourth season as Rangers catching coordinator, his fifth season overall in the organization...named to the Major League staff on October 26, 2020.

LONE STAR CATCHING: Bobby Wilson begins his fourth season as catching coordinator...in his dual role, he handles catching instruction for the Major League club, and he continues to coordinate the minor league catching program while based in Arlington…there was just a four-year gap between Wilson's final season as a player with Texas and his first year on the Rangers coaching staff…that is the fifth-shortest span in club history: John Wetteland (1 year, 2000/2002), Toby Harrah (2 years, 1986/1989), Jackie Brown (3 years, 1975/1979), Bengie Molina (3 years, 2010/2014).

WORKING LOW TO HIGH: According to FanGraphs' fielding runs above average statistic, Texas catchers have produced an 78.3 "Defense" figure during Wilson's tenure beginning 2021, ranking 3rd among A.L. clubs over that span (NYY-110.1, TOR-99.3)… Rangers catching has produced a 39.8 catcher framing score since the start of 2021, 2nd-best in the A.L. to only NYY (67.6)… the 2021 Texas catching group accumulated an A.L.-best 14 defensive runs saved, 2nd-best in MLB that year (PIT-20)… TEX catchers' framing score was an MLB-best 16.7 in 2021 (FanGraphs).

Wilson has tutored Rangers catcher Jonah Heim for the past four seasons…Heim was selected winner of the 2023 A.L. Gold Glove Award at catcher…Heim has a 25.5 catcher framing score (FanGraphs) since the start of 2021, 4th-best in the A.L. (44.9-Jose Trevino, 32.2-Cal Raleigh, 25.8-Alejandro Kirk).

NOT LOST: Originally slated to make his coaching debut as manager at Double-A Frisco in 2020, Wilson ended up serving as a coach at the club's Alternate Training Site that year, where he worked with team's catchers that were not on the active roster… also spent time with the ML staff near end of the campaign.

PLAYING CAREER: Entered the coaching ranks in 2020 after a 17-year playing career that included Major League stints with the Los Angeles Angels (2008-12), Arizona (2014), Tampa Bay (2015-16), Texas (2015-16), Detroit (2016, 2019), and Minnesota (2018)…finished his career with 18 home runs and 102 RBI in 386 MLB games…final ML game came with Tigers on 7/27/19 at SEA…last HR was with Twins on 8/15/18 vs. PIT (Keone Kela)…while with the Angels on 7/27/11 vs. CLE, caught Ervin Santana's no-hitter…made his first Opening Day roster with LAA in 2010…hit his 1st career home run on 6/16/10 vs. MIL (Chris Narveson)…with Triple-A Salt Lake in 2009, caught Sean O'Sullivan's no-hitter on 7/28/09 at Sacramento…with LAA, made his ML debut on 4/28/08 vs. OAK, recording a single in his first ML at-bat (off Dallas Braden).

TEXAS: The catcher played for a pair of A.L. West-champion Texas teams in 2015-16, appearing in 73 games for Texas over those two seasons…spent the final two months of 2015 with Texas after he was acquired from Tampa Bay in a 7/31/15 waiver claim, and was with the club in that postseason despite not being on the ALDS roster…was acquired from Detroit in a 5/3/16 trade after being dealt to the Tigers just prior to Opening Day…both career grand slams came in a 7-day span with Texas that year: 5/8/16 at DET and 5/14/16 vs. TOR…he joins Ivan Rodriguez (2001) and Jonah Heim (2023) as only TEX catchers with multiple slams in a single campaign.

AMATEUR CAREER: The Florida native was selected by Anaheim in the 48th round of the 2002 June draft out of St. Petersburg (Fla.) College, where he played two seasons…he was originally chosen by San Francisco in the 26th round of the 2001 June draft following his senior year at Seminole (Fla.) High School, but did not sign…the 2001 Seminole High team was rated no. 1 in the nation, winning the Florida 5A state title by going 31-0… team saw six players drafted that June.

PERSONAL: Robert Louis Wilson…he and wife Lori, reside in Largo, Fla., with their three daughters, Blake (12/5/11), Jace (10/11/13), and Shae (10/19/17).

TEXAS RANGERS RULE 5 DRAFT HISTORY, 1971-2024

The Rangers have selected 19 players in the Major League Baseball Rule 5 Draft, which takes place annually at the winter meetings, since the franchise moved to Texas after the 1971 season. Additionally, Texas has acquired 5 other players via trade on the day of the Rule 5 Draft. Players with at least three years of professional service who are not protected on a team's major league roster are eligible for selection by another club for $100,000.00 ($25,000.00 through 1984). If the player selected does not make the opening day major league roster and remain there for the duration of the season, he must be offered back to his original club for one-half the draft price. Texas selections:

2024 ALL-STAR GAME AT GLOBE LIFE FIELD

The 94th Major League Baseball All-Star Game was the second Midsummer Classic ever hosted by the Rangers, first at Globe Life Field after the 1995 All-Star Game was played at The Ballpark in Arlington. It also signaled the third time a defending World Series champion has hosted an All-Star Game, joining the 1934 New York Giants and 1939 New York Yankees.

The Rangers had 3 All-Stars for the 2024 Midsummer Classic on July 16 in Arlington. It marked the fifth consecutive All-Star Game (2019, 2021-24) for Texas to have multiple representatives on the A.L. roster and the fifth straight year for the Rangers to have at least one position player and one pitcher selected, matching a franchise record (also, 2010-14).

The club had 2 players selected via player voting (Marcus Semien-2B, Kirby Yates-RP), and one player added to the roster as an injury replacement (Corey Seager-SS). Rangers manager Bruce Bochy served as the skipper of the A.L. All-Star team and became the ninth manager in MLB history to lead five-or-more All-Star squads (also, N.L. manager in 1999, 2011, 2013, and 2015). Bochy was joined in the A.L. dugout by the Texas coaching staff as the defending World Series and American League champions.

Semien was the A.L.'s starting second baseman for the third time in as many All-Star appearances (also, 2021 with TOR and 2023 with TEX), replacing fan-elected starter Jose Altuve and going 1-for-2 with one run scored. Seager, participating in his fifth career Midsummer Classic, logged one inning at shortstop and flied out in his only plate appearances. Yates, in his second career All-Star Game (also, 2019 with SD), earned a hold with a 1-2-3 scoreless 8th frame that included 2 strikeouts.

The American League All-Stars prevailed, 5-3, over the National League squad, earning the Junior Circuit its 10th All-Star Game win in the last 11 years (beg. 2013). Boston's Jarren Duran was named Most Valuable Player, as his two-run home run in the bottom of the 5th inning proved to be the game-winning hit. Athletics reliever Mason Miller earned the win with a spotless 5th frame, and Cleveland closer Emmanuel Clase earned the save with a scoreless 9th inning. 39,343 attended the two-hour, 28-minute contest, the shortest All-Star Game since 1988 (2:26).

The A.L.'s victory capped a scintillating All-Star Week in the DFW Metroplex that included the HBCU Swingman Classic, All-Star Futures Game, Celebrity Softball Game, the debut of the Futures Game Skills Competition, the 2024 MLB Draft from Cowtown Coliseum at the Fort Worth Stockyards, the T-Mobile Home Run Derby, and the All-Star Red Carpet Show.

2024 SEASON IN REVIEW

FINAL OVERALL RECORD: 78-84 (.481)

THIRD IN A.L. WEST DIVISION, 10.5 GAMES BEHIND HOUSTON
HOME 44-37 ROAD: 34-47

WINS AND LOSSES: The Rangers went 78-84 (.481) this season to finish in third place in the A.L. West, 10.5 games behind division-winner Houston. The Mariners finished in second place, 3.5 games behind the Astros. It was the Rangers' 7th losing season in the last 8 years beginning 2017, lone exception being the club's World Series title in 2023 (90-72). Club's .481 win pct. was the lowest in a full season by a defending World Series champion since the 2014 Red Sox went 71-91 (.438). The Rangers also joined the 2020 Nationals and 2019 Red Sox as the only defending champs since 2017 to not make the postseason.

Texas also finished in 8th place in the A.L. Wild Card standings, 8.0 games back of the league's final 2 Wild Card teams (Detroit/Kansas City). Club was eliminated from playoff contention with a loss on Sept. 20 vs. Seattle, this after being eliminated from A.L. West race with team's loss on Sept. 19 vs. Toronto.

Team finished in 3rd place in the division after tying for first place in 2023 (lost tiebreaker vs. HOU), as club's last division title came in 2016. The 3rd-place finish was still Rangers' 2nd-best in the past 5 seasons beginning 2020, and the 10.5-game final division deficit is 2nd-best finish since 2017 (-0.0 GB in 2023). Club held at least a share of first place after 33 days in 2024 (last on May 11), including sole possession of the division lead on 27 days. The largest advantage held by Texas in '24 was a +1.5-game lead on both April 18 and May 9. Club's -8.0-game Wild Card finish was best (excluding 2023) since 2017 (-7.0 GB).

ATTENDANCE: The Rangers finished with a home attendance of 2,651,553 for 81 dates, an average of 32,735. This year's total attendance ranked 11th in MLB/5th in A.L., while the average finished 12th in MLB/5th in A.L. It was the Rangers' highest attendance since 2016 (2,710,402) and represented an increase of 118,509 over 2023 (2,533,044), a 4.7% rise in attendance from last year. This year's figures also marked the Rangers' best in the brief history of Globe Life Field (since 2020).

Rangers hosted 8 sellouts in 2024, the team's 2nd-most in any season at Globe Life Field (15 in 2023). Texas drew 6 crowds of at least 39,000 in Arlington, going 5-1 in those contests. The season-high crowd of 42,130 for a walk-off win on March 28 vs. Chicago-NL was the largest regular season figure in GLF history (since 2020), and 4th-highest overall to only a trio of postseason games in 2023. Team drew 3 of the top 6 regular season crowds in park history, also 4 of the top 15 overall (including postseason). The lowest home attendance for the year came on Tuesday, April 9 vs. Oakland (18,714).

BATTING: Texas finished with a batting average of .238 (1302-5472), 8th in the A.L. and TEX's 3rd-lowest BA over a full season in club history (.217 in 1972, .232 in 2021). 6 of the 7 lowest batting averages in team history have come in the last 7 full seasons beginning 2017. Texas' .305 on-base percentage ranked 10th in the A.L. Finished with a .380 SLG and .686 OPS, each ranking 11th in the A.L. after TEX led the circuit in all four slash categories in 2023 (.263/.337/.452/.790).

Rangers finished 8th in the A.L. and 18th in MLB in runs scored (683), TEX's lowest total since 2021 (625). Averaged 4.22 runs per game after leading the A.L. with 5.44 R/G in 2023. Club has still averaged at least 4.00 runs per game in 3 straight seasons after failing to reach that mark in 2021 (3.86) and 2020 (3.73). Scored season-high 15 runs twice on 5/4 at KC (15-4 win) and 5/7 at OAK (15-8 win). Team scored 10+ runs in 11 games this season, T6th-most such games in A.L./T14th-most in MLB. Rangers were held to one-or-zero runs 26 times in 2024, most since 2021 (39) and 8 more than team's total from 2023 (18).

CLUTCH HITTING: Texas slashed .271/.357/.424/.782 (332-1226) with runners in scoring position, ranking among A.L.'s best with RISP in OBP (1st), BA (2nd), and OPS (4th). It marked Rangers' highest OBP with RISP since 2008 (.380). Paired with Texas' .275 BA w/RISP in 2023, this marked the first time for TEX to bat .270-or-better with RISP in consecutive full seasons since 2010-12 (.276, .285, .275). Texas had a .252 BA with RISP and 2 outs, 2nd in A.L. (.253-TOR). Rangers batted just .235 with the bases loaded (11th in A.L.) and .217 in "close and late" situations (11th in A.L.).

CHALLENGES: The Rangers were successful on 19 of 37 (51.4%) in manager challenges using instant replay review in 2024, MLB's 11th year using comprehensive instant replay. Texas had just 4 confirmed calls, all on plays when trying to overturn an out call at the plate, with 2 of the 4 coming on the same play (tag play AND blocking the plate in bottom 6th on 8/3 vs. BOS). The 4 confirmed calls ranked as T6th-fewest in MLB. Beginning August 4, the Rangers would go 9-0-8 in final 17 challenge plays in 2024. Club twice won 4 consecutive challenges: June 28-July 25 and Sept. 13-26. Texas had just one challenged play from July 14-August 2 (force play at 1st base on 7/25 vs. CWS). Rangers' 37.8% of calls ruled as "stands" ranked 4th-highest in MLB.

COME-FROM-BEHIND WINS/CLOSE GAMES: The Rangers posted 36 come-from-behind wins in 2024, 3 shy of the previous year's total (39 in 2023). Club's largest comeback occurred in season's next-to-last contest on 9/28 at LAA, trailing by 6 runs (7-1 after 3 innings, won 9-8). It was the Rangers' biggest deficit in a win since 6/18/23 vs. TOR (also 6), and club's best comeback win on the road since 8/24/18 at SF (6) against Bruce Bochy's Giants. The Rangers' two largest comeback wins in 2024 both came in the club's final 7 games, as team overcame a 5-run deficit in walk-off win in home finale on 9/22 vs. SEA.

The Rangers won at home in the bottom of the 9th-or-later on 10 occasions in 2024: 3/28 vs. CHC, 5/18 vs. LAA, 7/22 vs. CWS, 8/5 vs. HOU, 8/18 vs. MIN, 8/21 vs. PIT, 8/31 vs. OAK, 9/1 vs. OAK, 9/3 vs. NYY, 9/22 vs. SEA. The 10 walk-off victories were 2nd in the A.L. and T4th-most in MLB: 11-NYM/SF/SEA, 10-TEX/MIA/PHI/SD. The 10 such wins were also T7th-most in a season in Rangers history, team's 2nd-most in the last 34 seasons beg. 1991 (11 in 2010).

The Rangers finished with a 26-20 (.565) record in one-run games in '24, T6th-best win pct. in MLB. It was the 10th-best win pct. in club history in one-run games, most such wins and highest such win pct. since 2016 (still MLB modern-era record .766, 36-11). Club won 4 times when trailing after 8 innings, T4th-most in the A.L.: 6-DET, 5-KC/TB, 4-TEX/NYY/OAK. Those 4 wins: 5/5 at KC, 8/14 at BOS, 9/3 vs. NYY, 9/28 at LAA.).

DAYS IN EACH POSITION: First (33); Second (51); Third (101); Fourth (0); Fifth (0). Texas finished 3rd in the A.L. West, 10.5 games behind Houston. Club has ended the year in 3rd, 4th, or 5th place in 6 of last 7 full seasons beg. 2017 (T1st in 2023).

Rangers largest division advantage in 2024 was +1.5 GA (2x) on 4/18 after win at DET and 5/9 (off day). Club's largest division deficit was -12.0 GB on 9/21 after loss vs. SEA, which was first time to be at least -12.0 GB of division lead since final day of 2022 campaign (68-94, -38.0 GB).

DAY/NIGHT: Texas was 29-29 (.500) in day games and 49-55 (.471) at night. The .500 day mark ranked T9th in the A.L. while the .471 night win pct. ranked 10th. Texas won 6 consecutive day games from 7/6-25 but followed that up with 6 consecutive day losses from 7/27-8/10. Rangers did not win more than 3 consecutive night games all season, winning 3 straight on 7 different occasions (last 9/25-28).

DELAYS: Texas endured 4 rain delays this season, 3 of which took place before a game's first pitch and another delay that began shortly after first pitch ahead of an eventual suspension. The last of those delays was on 8/27/24 at CWS, when heavy rain began shortly after first pitch and caused play to be halted just 4 pitches into the contest. It was resumed and completed the next day.

DOUBLEHEADERS/POSTPONEMENTS: Texas finished with a single postponement in 2024: 8/9 at NYY due to the forecast of sustained inclement weather. Since the start of 2022, 3 of the Rangers' 4 postponements have been for games at Yankee Stadium: 5/6/22 at NYY, 5/7/22 at NYY, 6/6/22 at CLE, 8/9/24 at NYY. The club played two doubleheaders in 2024, and the Rangers also had one game suspended this season.

The suspended game on 8/27/24 at CWS was just the 6th in Rangers history (beg. 1972), first since 5/10/94 vs. CAL. Each of Texas' first 5 suspended games started, resumed, and finished in Arlington, as this year's instance marked the first time in club history for the Rangers to be part of a suspended game on the road. The 8/27/24 contest in Chicago was suspended after just 4 pitches in the top of the 1st inning, as a downpour began right around first pitch and rain continued into the evening. The 8/27/24 suspended contest was resumed the next day prior to the regularly-scheduled game.

The club's two doubleheaders this season (0-0-2): 5/8 at OAK and 8/10 at NYY. On each date, Rangers lost the opener and won the nightcap. The twinbill in Oakland, the final doubleheader in the history of the Coliseum, was in the original schedule. It was the club's first DH since 6/6/22 at CLE. The double dip at Yankee Stadium was the result of a rainout on 8/9/24 at NYY.

EXTRA INNINGS: Texas went 9-2 (.818) in its 11 extra-inning games in 2024, the best extras win pct. in the A.L./2nd in MLB (.833-SD, 10-2) and the highest such mark in WSH/TEX franchise history (beg. 1961). 9 extra-inning wins matched club's most in the last 14 seasons beg. 2011 (11 in 2010). Club went 6-0 in extra-inning contests at home, first time for TEX to go 6-0-or-better in home extra-inning games in franchise history, and 15th such occurrence in MLB history (last 2021 Phillies, 7-0).

Rangers played in a 13-inning game on 5/18 vs. LAA (W, 3-2), the longest game (by innings) for Texas this season, as it was one of 7 contests in MLB in 2024 to last 13 innings-or-longer. The game lasted 3 hours and 44 minutes, TEX's longest contest by time this season, and longest contest at Globe Life Field since 6/12/23 vs. LAA (3:49 - L, 6-9 in 12 inn.).

FIELDING: Texas finished with a .987 (73 E/5621 TC) fielding percentage in 2024, 2nd in the A.L. (MIN-.988) and the 5th-best figure in MLB. It was the 2nd-highest fielding pct. and 2nd-fewest errors in a full season in Washington/Texas franchise history, trailing only a 2023 campaign in which club posted a franchise-record .990 (57 E/5789 TC) fielding pct. Over the last 2 seasons (2023-24), the Rangers' .989 (130 E/11511 TC) fielding pct. ranks 2nd in MLB to only Arizona (.990), and club's 130 errors are 2nd-fewest to only the D-backs (118).

The club's 2024 ranks came despite a severe dip in the season's final days. Through 9/17, the Rangers' A.L.-best .989 fielding pct. was not far off from MLB-best Arizona (higher .989), but club's 13 errors over final 10 games beginning 9/19 was tied for most in MLB (also LAA). Texas had errors in 9 of season's final 10 contests, including season-long 7-G error streak from 9/19-26.

Team set a club record with a 16-game errorless streak from 7/23-8/10(G1), surpassing the previous mark of 15 games from 8/4-19/96. With this streak, 2 of the 4 longest errorless streaks in Rangers history have been produced over the past 2 seasons: 16 G, 7/23-8/10/24(G1); 15 G, 8/4-19/96; 12 G, 4/23-5/5/16; 11 G, 6/23-7/3/23. Texas began the 2024 season with 28 consecutive games with one or zero errors. Rangers had just 10 games with 2+ errors in 2024, 3 of which came in the season's final 10 games.

GLOBE LIFE FIELD: The 2024 campaign marked the fifth year for Globe Life Field, and the facility's fourth full MLB season. The park produced a slash line of .230/.299/.379/.678 with 8.04 runs per game and 2.27 home runs per game for the Rangers and opponents. Among the 30 parks that hosted more than two MLB games in 2024, Globe Life Field had the following ranks in these categories: Home runs (14th), Runs (25th), BA (26th), SLG (26th), OPS (26th), OBP (27th). Each of the 6 figures referenced here were all-time lows for any of the four full seasons at Globe Life Field (excl. 2020).

There were 7 games played with the roof open at Globe Life Field in 2024, 4 fewer than in 2023 (11) and the lowest full-season total in the venue's brief history. In 2020, there were 6 regular season (Texas) games with the roof open, and 13 non-Rangers postseason games with the lid off. In 2024, the Rangers and their opponents posted identical OPS splits with the roof open (.203/.297/.381/.678) and closed (.232/.299/.379/.678).

HOME/ROAD: Texas went 44-37 at home and 34-47 on the road this season. Club batted .239/.310/.393/.703 (636-2656) at home compared to .237/.301/.368/.669 (666-2816) on the road. Rangers pitchers had the 5th-best home ERA in the A.L. (3.36), but worst road ERA on the circuit (5.12) in 2024.

Texas' 44-37 (.543) record at home ranked T5th in A.L./T11th in MLB. It marked the 2nd-highest win. pct. for Texas at Globe Life Field (beg. 2020) to only its .617 mark (50-31) in 2023. Rangers posted consecutive winning full seasons at home for the first time since 2015-17 (.531, .654, .506, respectively).

Texas logged season-high 5-game home winning streaks twice: 6/19-7/2, 7/21-25. Club's pitchers had season-high 33.0-inning home scoreless streak from 6/21-7/3, the 2nd-longest streak in franchise history to only a 52.0-IP stretch from 4/18-5/1/81 (Stats Perform). From 8/18-9/18, Rangers went 12-4 (.750) at home, the best home win pct. in A.L. in that span/2nd in MLB (.769-NYM). Team was season-high 9 games over .500 at home (43-34) on 9/18 after win vs. TOR. Team was season-low 3 games below .500 at home (16-19) on 6/18 after loss vs. NYM. Rangers have an all-time record of 180-174 (.508) at Globe Life Field.

Texas' 34-47 (.420) road mark ranked 12th in A.L. and 24th in MLB, still team's T2nd-best road finish in the last six full seasons beg. 2018 (.494 in 2023, .420 in 2024/2022). After going 12-8 in its first 20 away games through 5/8, TEX went 22-39 (.361) in its final 61 road tilts beg. 5/10, the 3rd-fewest road wins in A.L. in span (21-LAA, 14-CWS). Each of TEX's two highest run totals of '24 came in a 4-day span on road: 5/4 at KC (15) and 5/7 at OAK (15). Team was held to 2-or-fewer runs in 28 of 81 (34.6%) road games, 5th-most in the A.L. Club endured 9-game road losing streak from 6/14-29, its longest away skid since a 14-game streak 7/4-8/8/21. Texas won 4 of 5, 8 of 15, and 10 of its final 19 road games to close '24, incl. a season-ending 3-G sweep at LAA..

HOME RUNS: Texas batters hit 176 home runs in 2024, 9th-highest total in the A.L. and 18th-most in MLB. Team hit a HR in a season-high 14 straight games from 5/14-31, the T6th-longest streak in MLB in '24 and longest for TEX since 2017 (also 14).

Texas had 2 pinch-hit HR in 2024: Travis Jankowski on 3/28 vs. CHC and Robbie Grossman on 7/7 vs. TB. This, after Rangers did not record a pinch-hit HR in 2023. Rangers hit 6 leadoff home runs in 2024, T5th in A.L./T10th in MLB, and were all hit by Marcus Semien: 4/18 at DET, 4/19 at ATL, 5/7 at OAK, 6/3 vs. DET, 7/13 at HOU, 9/8 vs. LAA. From 4/18-19, Semien became the 1st Ranger with leadoff HR in back-to-back games since Shin-Soo Choo from 7/12-13/19 vs. HOU. The Rangers hit 3 walk-off HR in 2024, T5th-most in MLB this season: Josh Smith on 8/5 vs. HOU, Josh Jung on 9/1 vs. OAK, Wyatt Langford on 9/3 vs. NYY. All 3 walk-off HR came with TEX trailing, most such HR in MLB in '24 and T-most in a single season in Rangers history (also 1978/1982). Rangers had 7 individual multi-homer games for the year, their fewest over a full season since 2014 (5).

INJURED LIST: The Rangers had 33 separate Injured List stints in 2024, with 23 different players spending time on the IL, including 6 players with multiple IL stints: Josh Sborz (4), Max Scherzer (3), Jon Gray (3), Dane Dunning (2), Josh Jung (2), and Tyler Mahle (2). Those 6 players accounted for nearly half of the team's IL stints in '24 (48.5%, 16 of 33). The team endured 1825 days missed due to IL stints in 2024. The 33 IL stints ranked 7th in MLB: 36-LAD/PIT, 35-BOS/SF, 34-CHC/CIN, 33-TEX. The 1825 days missed ranked 4th in MLB: 2219-LAD, 1905-BOS, 1861-HOU, 1825-TEX.

MONTH-BY-MONTH: March: 2-1; April: 14-13; May: 11-16; June: 11-16; July: 14-11; August: 12-15; Sept.: 14-12. Club's .560 win pct. in July was T3rd in MLB/T7th in MLB (.680-ARI, .630-NYM, .625-OAK, .500-PIT, .591-SD, .565-KC, .560-TEX/DET), as well as TEX's winningest July since 2011 (.667, 18-9). Rangers' .407 win pct. in May signaled club's worst full month since Sept. 2022 (.296, 8-19).

PITCHING: Rangers pitching staff compiled a 4.35 ERA (690 ER/1427.2 IP), 12th in the A.L. and 24th in MLB, and a higher figure than 2023 (4.28). Both its rotation and bullpen posted a 4.35 ERA, the first time in club history for TEX's starters and relievers to have identical ERA's. Team's 3.61 ERA through 5/6 ranked 11th in MLB, but its 4.64 ERA from 5/7-9/21 was 26th in baseball in span and spiked team's season figure from 3.61 to 4.40, highest since the third game of the season (4.50). Texas pitchers recorded a 3.23 ERA (22 ER/61.1 IP) over season's final 7 games from 9/22-29 to lower season mark to 4.35.

STARTERS: Texas starters combined to go 40-60 (.400) with a 4.35 ERA (398 ER/823.2 IP) over 162 games in 2024, 6th-highest ERA in the A.L. (4.97-LAA, 4.76-OAK, 4.62-CWS, 4.40-CLE, 4.36-MIN). It marked a +0.39 increase from rotation's ERA in 2023 (3.96) but was still its 2nd-lowest mark in the last eight full seasons (beg. 2016). Opponents slashed .245/.306/.412/.718 (777-3176) against Rangers starters in '24. From beg. of season-6/9, rotation posted a 3.46 ERA (133 ER/345.2 IP), which was the 7th-lowest mark in MLB, but had a 4.99 ERA (265 ER/478.0 IP), which was 4th-highest in baseball, to spike season ERA to 4.35. Rangers starting pitchers allowed 3-or-fewer ER in 21 consecutive games from 5/15-6/9, marking the longest such streak in Rangers history (since 1972) and the 2nd-longest run of that kind in WSH/TEX franchise history (25 G, 8/28-9/22/67), per Elias. Texas starting pitchers recorded 7+ strikeouts in 5 consecutive games from 4/21-26, the longest such streak by a Rangers rotation since 9/16-22/11 (6 games).

RELIEVERS: The Rangers bullpen had a 38-24 (.613) record with a 4.35 ERA (292 ER/604.0 IP) in 162 games, the 4th-highest ERA in the A.L. (4.82-TOR, 4.73-CWS, 4.36-BOS). Opponents slashed .241/.330/.389/.719 (546-2268) against Texas relievers in 2024. The bullpen's .330 opp. OBP was 2nd-highest in the A.L./4th-highest in MLB (.360-CWS, .352-CWS, .335-PIT). The Rangers' 604.0 relief innings in 2024 were the 4th-most in club history (641.2 in 2022, 630.0 in 2019, 625.2 in 2021) and signaled a 39.2-IP increase from 2023 (564.1). Rangers relievers struck out a club-record 623 batters, one more than the previous mark of 622 set in 2019. The 623 relief K's ranked 5th in A.L. and 11th in MLB.

PLAYERS USED/ROOKIES: The 2024 Rangers used 57 players, T4th-most in the A.L. and T9th in MLB: 70-MIA, 64-LAA, 63-CWS, 61-CIN, 60-BAL/LAD, 59-NYM, 58-SF, 57-TEX/BOS. The 57 players used was an increase of 9 over 2023 (48), and ranked T2nd-most in Rangers history (64 in 2014, 57 in 2015/2024).

The list of 11 rookies to make their ML debut with Texas in 2024: Church, Fabian, Foscue, Garabito, Harris, Langford, Leiter, Robert, Rocker, Wendzel, Winn. Of the 11 players to make a MLB debut with Texas in 2024, 5 are former TEX first round picks: Winn (15th overall, 2018), Foscue (14th, 2020), Leiter (2nd, 2021), Rocker (3rd, 2022), and Langford (4th, 2023). With the promotion of Rocker on 9/12/24, Texas had 5 of its former first-round draft selections on the active roster: Foscue, Josh Jung (8th, 2019), Langford, Leiter, Rocker. Per Stats Perform, it marked the first time since the 1992 in which the Rangers had as many as 5 of the club's former first-round draft selections on the team's active roster. The list in late 1992: LHP Dan Smith (16th, 1990), OF Donald Harris (5th, 1989), UTL Monty Fariss (6th, 1988), LHP Brian Bohanon (19th, 1987), RHP Kevin Brown (4th, 1986).

SERIES/SWEEPS: Texas went 22-29-1 in 52 series this season, 12-13-1 at home and 10-16-0 on the road. Texas went 7-5-0 in its last 12 series beginning August 19, this following a stretch of 7 consecutive winless sets (0-7-0) from July 26-August 18. That drought was the club's longest since going 0-7-0 from Aug. 17-Sept. 7, 2020. Rangers also had a pair of spans with 4 straight series wins: both 4-0-0, 4/26-5/8 and 8/27-9/6. Club's last longer span of consecutive series wins was a 6-0-0 stretch from 5/19-6/7/23. Texas finished 16-6-1 in series when winning the series opener, and 6-23-0 when losing it. Rangers swept 6 series in 2024: 5/28-29 vs. ARI (2-0), 6/21-23 vs. KC (3-0), 7/5-7 vs. TB (3-0), 7/22-25 vs. CWS (4-0), 8/27-29 at CWS (3-0), 9/27-29 at LAA (3-0). Club was swept 5 times in 2024, all on the road: 5/10-12 at COL (0-3), 5/21-23 at PHI (0-3), 6/14-16 at SEA (0-3), 6/24-26 at MIL (0-3), 7/26-29 at TOR (0-3). Texas has not dropped all games of a home series since 9/4-6/23 vs. HOU (0-3).

SHUTOUTS: Texas posted 12 shutouts on the year, T4th-most in the A.L.: 4/15 at DET, 5/02 vs. WAS, 5/15 vs. CLE, 6/1 at MIA, 6/2 at MIA, 6/22 vs. KC, 6/23 vs. KC, 7/2 vs. SD, 7/5 vs. TB, 8/21 vs. PIT, 9/18 vs. TOR, 9/29 at LAA. The 12 SHO were one short of matching club's total from 2023 (13), but were still T9th-most in a single season in club history. 8 of the 12 shoutouts came at Globe Life Field, the Rangers' most blankings in Arlington since 2014 (9).

Texas posted shoutouts in back-to-back games on 6/1-2 at MIA and 6/22-23 vs. KC, marking the first time in which the club has pitched consecutive shutouts multiple times in a season since 2014 (also 2x). Team was held scoreless 10 times in 2024, T5th-most in A.L. It was just 17th season in club history in which the Rangers were shutout 10-or-more times and the 3rd time in the last 4 campaigns in which the team endured 10+ blankings (10-2024, 11-2023, 4-2022, 15-2021).

TIME OF GAME: Texas 9-inning games averaged 2 hours, 34 minutes, 27 seconds (2:34:27), a drop of almost 5 minutes from 2023 (2:39:20) and a fall of over 26 minutes from 2022 (3:01:07). The 2:34:27 figure in 9-inning games was 10th-lowest in MLB and below the Major League average of 2:36:20.

The 2024 campaign was the 2nd year of the implementation of the pitch clock, and the first year of an additional decrease of time between pitches as part of MLB's efforts to improve the pace of play. Club's figures over the past 8 years: 2024-2:34:27, 2023-2:39:20, 2022-3:01:07, 2021-3:02:17, 2020-3:03:14, 2019-3:07:01, 2018-3:00:53, 2017-3:10:24. The 2024 campaign marked the seventh season with limited mound visits, and was the first year in which mound visits were reduced from 5 per game to 4 per contest.

Team's 13-inning game on 5/18 vs. LAA lasted 3 hours, 44 minutes, longest Rangers contest by time in 2024. Longest 9-inning contest for the year was a 12-11 win on 5/8 at OAK-G2 (3:33), team's longest game of 9 innings in the pitch clock era (2023-24).

RECORDS

Rangers second baseman Marcus Semien delivered the club's 10th walk-off victory of 2024 with a game-ending RBI single on September 22 vs. Seattle. Texas' 10 walk-off wins last year were its most in a single season since 2010 (11).

TEXAS RANGERS RETIRED NUMBERS

Five former Texas Rangers have had their uniform numbers retired in the ultimate honor bestowed by the organization: Nolan Ryan (1996), Johnny Oates (2005), Iván Rodríguez (2017), Adrian Beltré (2019) and Michael Young (2019). The number 42, worn by Jackie Robinson, was retired by all Major League clubs in 1997.

The numbers of these six individuals are displayed on the left field brick columns at Globe Life Field. In addition, shadow box displays commemorating the five Rangers are located on the interior columns on the outfield Main Concourse.

On April 15, 1997, Major League Baseball retired the number 42, worn by Hall of Famer Jackie Robinson, the first African-American player in the Major Leagues. That date marked the 50th anniversary of Robinson's Major League debut with the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1947. The Rangers held a retirement ceremony for the number 42 prior to a game with the Los Angeles Dodgers on September 2, 1997, at Rangers Ballpark in Arlington. Six players and three coaches had worn the number 42 for Texas. In 1997, outfielder Marc Sagmoen switched to number 37 on April 16 in recognition of the retirement of 42. The complete list of "42s" for the Rangers: Nellie Fox, coach (1972); Jackie Moore, coach (1973-76; 1993-94); George Medich, pitcher (1978-79); Wayne Terwilliger, coach (1981-85); Keith Creel, pitcher (1987); Scott Coolbaugh, third baseman (1989-90); Dan Smith, pitcher (1992); Dennis Cook, pitcher (1995-96); Marc Sagmoen, outfielder (1997).

The first uniform number to be retired in Texas Rangers history was the number 34, worn by pitcher Nolan Ryan from 1989-93. The team held a retirement ceremony on Sunday, September 15, 1996, before the Rangers played the Milwaukee Brewers in front of a sellout crowd of 45,941 at Rangers Ballpark in Arlington. Ryan signed with Texas as a free agent on December 7, 1988. He went on to finish his career in Arlington as baseball's all-time strikeout leader with 5,714. Among the feats he accomplished with the Rangers were his 300th victory (July 31, 1990, at Milwaukee); his 5,000th strikeout (Oakland's Rickey Henderson on August 22, 1989, at Arlington Stadium); his sixth no-hitter (June 11, 1990, at Oakland); and his seventh no-hitter (May 1, 1991, vs. Toronto at Arlington Stadium). He was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility on January 5, 1999, and was enshrined in the Hall on July 25, 1999. The seven-time All-Star was honored on Nolan Ryan Appreciation Day at Arlington Stadium on Sunday, September 12, 1993. His final Major League appearance was September 22 that year at Seattle. He is the only player in Major League history to have his number retired by three different teams (also California in 1993 and Houston in 1996).

The Rangers retired the number 7, worn by catcher Iván "Pudge" Rodríguez, in a pregame ceremony on August 12, 2017. The honor came 13 days after Rodríguez' induction into the National Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, New York, on July 30, 2017. Rodríguez was the 52nd player to be elected by the members of the Baseball Writers Association of America in his first year on the ballot, joining Johnny Bench, who was elected in 1989, as the only first-ballot catchers so honored. Overall, he was the 18th catcher to join the National Baseball Hall of Fame, the 10th selected in BBWAA voting. Rodríguez is one of eight players who wore a Texas Rangers uniform to be elected to the Hall of Fame and joins Ryan as the only Hall of Famers with a Rangers cap adorning their plaques. With the Rangers, Rodríguez batted .304 with 217 home runs and 842 RBI in 1,507 games. He ranks second on the team's all-time list with 1,747 hits, 352 doubles and 490 multi-hit games; ranks third in home runs; and ranks fourth in games, runs (866), triples (28), RBI, total bases (2,806), and extra base hits (597). He was elected to the Texas Rangers Hall of Fame in 2013. Following his retirement, he joined the Rangers as special assistant and is in his 12th year in that role.

On August 31, 2019, the Rangers officially retired the uniform number 10 of infielder Michael Young in a pregame ceremony. Young was the fifth Ranger to have his uniform number retired by the Club, the second to receive the honor in the final year of Globe Life Park in Arlington (also Adrian Beltré). Young, who re-joined the Rangers as special assistant to the general manager in November 2014, retired in January 2014 after an outstanding 13-year Major League career. Acquired by Texas from the Toronto Blue Jays in July 2000, Young played in a team record 1,823 games from 2000-12. He captured Rangers Player of the Year honors five times, matching Juan Gonzalez for the most in team history, and was selected to the A.L. All-Star team at three different positions. Young batted .300 or better seven times – a Club record – including six seasons with at least 200 hits. He won the A.L. batting title in 2005 and was the MVP of the 2006 All-Star Game at Pittsburgh. Young is the only player in All-Star Game history with two game-winning hits in his team's final at-bat (2006 and 2008). He is the Washington/Texas all-time leader in games, hits (2,230), runs (1,085), doubles (415), triples (55), total bases (3,286), at-bats (7,399), and multi-hit games (651) and ranks third in RBI (984) and extra base hits (647) while batting .301 with 177 homers. Young was a starter at all four infield positions in his Rangers career, earning a Gold Glove at shortstop in 2008. Overall, Young batted .300 with 185 homers and 1,030 RBI in 1,970 games with the Rangers (2000-12), Phillies (2013) and Dodgers (2013).

The number 29 of third baseman Adrian Beltré was retired by the Rangers in a pregame ceremony on June 8, 2019. He became the fourth Ranger to have his uniform number retired by the team, and the honor followed his retirement as an active player at the end of the 2018 season. Elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility on Jan. 23, 2024, Beltré produced a brilliant 21-year Major League career with the Dodgers (1998-2004), Mariners (2005-09), Red Sox (2010) and Rangers (2011-18). At the time of his retirement, he ranked among the all-time leaders in doubles (11th, 636), games (14th, 2,933), total bases (14th, 5,309), extra base hits (14th, 1,151), hits (15th, 3,166), RBI (21st, 1,707), and home runs (30th, 477). Beltré had the most career hits of any non-U.S. native in history. The only other players ever to have at least 3,166 hits and 477 home runs are Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, Eddie Murray, Albert Pujols, and Miguel Cabrera. In his eight seasons with the Rangers, Beltré batted .304 with 199 homers and 699 RBI in 1,098 games. He was a four-time selection as Rangers Player of the Year while batting at least .300 five times. His .332 average as a Ranger at Globe Life Park in Arlington was the highest in the 26-year history of the park.

On Saturday, August 6, 2005, the Texas Rangers Baseball Club retired the number 26 in honor of late manager Johnny Oates before a 10-3 victory against the Baltimore Orioles. A crowd of 34,632 gathered at Rangers Ballpark in Arlington to watch the ceremony. Oates became the 14th full-time manager of the Club on Oct. 14, 1994. He spent parts of seven seasons at the helm, from 1995-2001, leading the Rangers to their first three division titles and Postseason appearances in franchise history, in '96, '98 and '99. In 1996, Oates shared the American League Manager of the Year Award with Yankees skipper Joe Torre, and in 1999 he led the team to a then-record 95 wins. In his five seasons in Arlington, Oates compiled a record of 506-476 and a .515 winning percentage. On August 2, 2003, the organization honored Oates by inducting him into the inaugural class of the Texas Rangers Baseball Hall of Fame. Known for his steady leadership and strong values, Oates passed away on Christmas Eve 2004.

TEXAS RANGERS BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

The Texas Rangers Baseball Hall of Fame was created in 2003 to honor those individuals who have excelled for the franchise both on and off the field. Through 2024, 26 individuals have been inducted.

Under a process instituted in 2009, which is comprised of all living Texas Rangers Baseball Hall of Fame inductees, veteran members of the media, and Rangers club officials, meets to consider individuals based on their playing contributions. Individuals in a non-playing capacity are also considered for induction by the Rangers organization.

To be considered for Texas Rangers Baseball Hall of Fame selection, former players must have spent a minimum of four seasons in a Texas uniform and be retired as an active player for a minimum of one year.

THREE MILLION FANS IN A SEASON

There have been two instances in Washington/Texas franchise history of home attendance surpassing the 3 million mark in a single season: 2012 and 2013. The club's two-year total of 6,638,553 in 2012-13, as well as average attendance of 40,727 in that span, both ranked 4th in the majors behind only Los Angeles-NL, New York-AL, and San Francisco.

The Rangers drew 3,460,280 fans for 81 home dates in 2012, the highest single-season figure in franchise history and the first time to ever surpass the 3 million mark. Club records were established with 38 sellouts and 59 crowds of at least 40,000. The team saw 3 separate streaks of at least 5 straight sellouts in 2012 after never having more than 4 sellouts in a row prior to that season. The Rangers reached the 3 million mark for the first time on September 13, 2012 in home date no. 71. The team surpassed 1 million that year on May 27 (home date no. 23) and 2 million on July 23 (home date no. 46), both besting the previous records to those milestones by four dates. Texas recorded sellout no. 22 on June 24, 2012 (home date no. 35), surpassing the previous mark of 21 sellouts in 1994. In 2012, the Rangers sold out a club-record 9 consecutive home dates from April 23-May 13, and also saw 5 straight sellouts both May 16-27 and June 29-July 7. For the entire 2012 season, the Rangers saw just 2 crowds of less than 30,000 in Arlington.

PASSED BALLS

The Rangers set a single-season major league record by committing 73 passed balls in 1987, surpassing the old mark of 49 by the 1959 Baltimore Orioles. Of the 73, 65 came with Charlie Hough on the mound, 46 in his final 21 starts and 25 in his last 11 outings. Geno Petralli had 35 total passed balls (32 with Hough on the mound), three more than the previous major league record accomplished by J.C. Martin of the Chicago White Sox in 1965. Don Slaught had 20 (17 catching Hough), and Mike Stanley committed 18 (16 with Hough) as that trio comprised the A.L.'s top three catchers in passed balls. All three broke the Rangers' record for passed balls for an individual catcher, set by Jim Sundberg in 1980 (17). The Rangers had three passed balls in a game four times, four and five twice each, and six once. Petralli's six passed balls on August 30 at Detroit tied the major league record for one game set by Harry Vickers of the Cincinnati Reds on October 4, 1902. Geno also had four passed balls in the seventh inning on August 22 vs. Chicago, matching the big league mark established by Ray Katt of the New York Giants on September 10, 1954.

TRIPLE PLAYS

BY RANGERS (8)

AUGUST 8, 1977 VS. OAKLAND: With Roger Moret pitching, Mitchell Page and Rich McKinney walked to open the fifth inning. Manny Sanguillen hit a grounder to third baseman Toby Harrah, who stepped on third to force Page, threw to second baseman Bump Wills, who forced McKinney, and threw to first baseman Mike Hargrove to get Sanguillen. The Rangers won, 3-0.

JUNE 17, 1999 AT NEW YORK: With Aaron Sele pitching, Tino Martinez and Paul O'Neill each singled to start the inning, giving New York runners at first and second base with no outs. Chili Davis hit a liner to second baseman Mark McLemore, who flipped the ball to shortstop Royce Clayton to double off Martinez at second. Clayton threw the ball to first baseman Lee Stevens to triple-off Paul O'Neill as both runners were moving on contact. The Rangers won, 4-2.

AUGUST 6, 2001 AT BOSTON: With Rob Bell pitching, Brian Daubach led off bottom of fourth inning with a walk and advanced to second on Chris Stynes' single. Scott Hatteberg lined out to shortstop Alex Rodriguez, who threw to second baseman Randy Velarde to double up Daubach at second. Velarde then tagged Stynes to complete the triple play. Boston won, 10-7.

APRIL 14, 2002 VS. SEATTLE: With Kenny Rogers pitching, Ruben Sierra doubled to lead off the top of the fourth inning and John Olerud followed with an infield single, advancing Sierra to third. Ron Wright, in just his second major league at-bat, hit a ground ball back to Rogers, who threw to shortstop Alex Rodriguez to force Olerud at second base. Sierra was then caught in a rundown between 3rd and home, Alex Rodriguez to catcher Ivan Rodriguez to 3rd baseman Hank Blalock to Rogers, who applied the tag. Rogers then threw to second baseman Michael Young, who tagged out Wright attempting to advance to second base to complete the triple play. Seattle won the game, 9-7.

According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the 1-6-2-5-1-4 triple play was the most touches (people handling the ball) on a triple play in the majors since August 29, 1969, when Billy Williams of the Chicago Cubs hit into a 3-6-5-1-4-7 TP vs. Atlanta. The six Braves participating, in order, were Orlando Cepeda, Gil Garrido, Clete Boyer, Pat Jarvis, Felix Milan and Rico Carty.

MAY 20, 2009 AT DETROIT: With Matt Harrison pitching, Brandon Inge doubled to lead off the bottom of the fourth inning and Ryan Raburn followed with a walk. Gerald Laird hit a line drive to second baseman Ian Kinsler, who threw to shortstop Elvis Andrus to double up Inge at second. Andrus then tagged Raburn to complete the triple play. Detroit won, 5-3.

AUGUST 16, 2018 VS. LOS ANGELES-AL: With Ariel Jurado pitching, the bases loaded, and no outs in the 4th inning, David Fletcher hit a sharp one-hop liner to a diving Jurickson Profar at third base. Profar stepped on 3rd base to force out Eric Young Jr., then tagged Taylor Ward, who had wandered off the bag. Profar then threw to Rougned Odor at 2nd base to force out Kole Calhoun and complete the triple play. According to STATS LLC, the 5-4 triple play marked the first 3-out play in MLB without the batter being retired since 6/3/1912 when the Brooklyn Dodgers did so against the Cincinnati Reds. Texas won, 8-6.

APRIL 20, 2022 AT SEATTLE: With Dane Dunning pitching and runners on 1st and 2nd base in the bottom of the 1st inning, Jesse Winker hit a line drive that was caught by Nathaniel Lowe, who stepped on 1st base to retire Ty France before throwing to shortstop Corey Seager at 2nd base to force out Adam Frazier and complete the first triple play in MLB in 2022. Seattle won, 4-2.

SEPTEMBER 20, 2022 VS. LOS ANGELES-AL: With John King pitching and runners on 1st and 2nd base in the top of the 6th inning, Max Stassi hit a ground ball to third baseman Josh Jung. Jung stepped on third base to retire Mike Ford and threw to second baseman Marcus Semien to force pinch-runner Magneuris Sierra. Semien threw to first baseman Nathaniel Lowe to retire Stassi and complete just the 2nd around-the-horn triple play in Rangers history (also 8/8/77 vs. OAK). The Angels won, 5-2.

It marked the first-ever triple play at Globe Life Field, and gave Texas multiple triple plays in a season for the first time in club history. Texas was involved in 3 of the 6 triple plays in MLB in 2022, turning the first and last such plays in the Majors for the year.

BY OPPOSITION (8)

AUGUST 13, 1972 VS. KANSAS CITY AT TEXAS: With Dick Drago pitching, the Rangers had Dick Bosman on second and Elliott Maddox on first in the bottom of the third inning. Toby Harrah hit a chop in front of the plate, and catcher Ed Kirkpatrick threw to third baseman Paul Schaal to force Bosman. Schaal then relayed to second baseman Cookie Rojas, covering first, to get Harrah. When Maddox tried to go from first to third on the play, he was thrown out at third on Rojas' return throw to Schaal. The Rangers won, 13-4.

JUNE 10, 1979 AT BALTIMORE: With Dennis Martinez pitching, the Rangers had Pat Putnam on first and Al Oliver on second in the top of the sixth inning. With runners going on the pitch, Buddy Bell hit a line drive to third baseman Doug DeCinces, who threw to second baseman Rich Dauer to double off Oliver. Dauer then relayed to first baseman Eddie Murray to get Putnam and complete the triple play. Baltimore won, 5-4.

JUNE 23, 1979 AT OAKLAND: With Craig Minetto pitching, the Rangers had Billy Sample on first and Oscar Gamble on second in the top of the fourth inning. John Grubb hit a soft liner to third baseman Wayne Gross, who was ruled to have made the catch by umpire Bill Kunkel. However, Rangers third base coach Frank Lucchesi, thinking the ball had been trapped, waved the runners from first and second. Gross, attempting to double Gamble off second, threw the ball into centerfield, but centerfielder Tony Armas retrieved the ball and threw to shortstop Dave Chalk in time to double Gamble off second. Armas then took the ball from Chalk and ran over to first base to catch Sample off the bag for the third out. Armas had an assist and putout on the triple play. The Rangers won, 8-5.

JULY 28, 1979 VS. BOSTON: With Dennis Eckersley pitching, the Rangers had Buddy Bell on first and John Grubb on third in the bottom of the first inning. Al Oliver hit a sinking liner towards right, and both runners, thinking the ball would drop, started to advance. However, second baseman Jack Brohamer made a diving catch and threw to first baseman Bob Watson to double Bell off first. Watson then relayed to third baseman Butch Hobson, who stepped on third to get Grubb and complete the triple play. Boston won, 1-0.

MAY 22, 1981 AT SEATTLE: With Jerry Don Gleaton pitching, John Grubb and Pat Putnam walked to lead off the eighth inning. With both runners going on the pitch, Mario Mendoza hit a line drive to shortstop Rick Auerbach, who stepped on 2nd to double off Grubb. Auerbach then threw to first baseman Bruce Bochte to catch Putnam for the third out. The Rangers won, 6-2.

JUNE 1, 1991 VS. SEATTLE: With Randy Johnson pitching, Mario Diaz and Gary Pettis walked to lead off the second inning. Brian Downing hit a grounder to third baseman Edgar Martinez, who stepped on third to force Diaz, then threw to second baseman Harold Reynolds to force Pettis. Reynolds made the relay to first baseman Pete O'Brien to get Downing. Seattle won, 12-8.

APRIL 22, 2016 AT CHICAGO-AL: With Jose Quintana pitching, Mitch Moreland hit a bases-loaded line drive to rightfielder Adam Eaton that would result in a 9-3-2-6-2-5 triple play on which all 3 baserunners had difficulty responding to whether the ball would be caught. Ian Desmond was retired when overrunning the bag in his return to first base. Prince Fielder was then caught off third base for the last out. It was the first triple play by a Texas opponent in nearly 25 years, and the first against the Rangers in a road game in almost 35 years since May 22, 1981 at Seattle.

AUGUST 22, 2022 AT MINNESOTA: With Sonny Gray pitching, Marcus Semien singled and Corey Seager followed with a walk to open the 4th inning. Nathaniel Lowe lined out to first baseman Jose Miranda, who stepped on first base to retire Seager and threw to shortstop Carlos Correa, who recorded a reverse forceout on Semien. It was the first time the Rangers had ever seen triple plays both for and against the team in a single season. Texas won, 2-1.

THE RANGERS BEFORE TEXAS

The current Texas Rangers franchise originated on October 26, 1960, when the American League awarded an expansion franchise to Washington, D.C. That followed the transfer of the original Washington franchise to Minnesota after the 1960 season. The expansion Senators played in Washington from 1961-1971 before moving to Texas after the 1971 season.

THE TEXAS RANGERS

On Nov. 23, 1971, club owner Robert E. Short announced the franchise he moved from Washington D.C. would be named the Texas Rangers. The inaugural game was supposed to be played on April 6, 1972, but was postponed by a players' strike. The Rangers lost to the California Angels, 1-0, on April 15 in the team's first game. In the first home game on April 21, 1972, the Rangers defeated the Angels 7-6 at Arlington Stadium.

THE 30-RUN GAME

Texas (30) at Baltimore (3) - August 22, 2007 (Game 1)

On Aug. 22, 2007, at Baltimore's Oriole Park at Camden Yards, the Rangers established a modern day record by scoring 30 runs in the first game of a doubleheader. Below is a list of various records and notes associated with this historic contest. Special thanks to Elias Sports Bureau for their assistance with this compilation. All notes are updated through the end of the 2024 season.

- The Rangers' 30 runs are the most in any game in modern major league history (beginning 1900), one more than 29 runs by the Red Sox (June 8, 1950 vs. StL-AL), White Sox (April 23, 1955 at KC), and Braves (Sept. 9, 2020 vs. MIA). It was the 9th time ever in baseball history for a team to score 30 runs (beginning 1876). Rangers' previous club record for runs scored was 26, on April 19, 1996 vs. Baltimore.

- The 27-run margin of victory is the largest in the modern era (since 1900) of Major League Baseball.
- The Rangers' 29 hits remain a club record, 6 more than previous mark of 23 hits, done twice: April 2, 1998 vs. Chicago-AL and June 24, 2004 vs. Seattle (18 innings). The 29 hits were 2 shy of matching the modern record of 31, done by Milwaukee on Aug. 28, 1992 vs. Toronto. Club had 27 hits on July 25, 2011 vs. Minnesota, which ranks as the 2nd-most in team history.
- Rangers' 65 plate appearances matched AL record for a 9-inning game, also done by St. Louis on July 6, 1929 (Game 2) vs. Philadelphia and Milwaukee on Aug. 28, 1992 vs. Toronto. Figure was one shy of modern major league record of 66 PA's by Philadelphia on Aug. 25, 1922 vs. Chicago.
- The Rangers' 57 at-bats tied the AL record for a 9-inning game, also done by Milwaukee on Aug. 28, 1992 vs. Toronto and Toronto on July 22, 2022 at Boston. The major league record for at-bats in a 9-inning game is 58, by the New York Giants twice, both on Sept. 2, 1925 vs. Philadelphia and July 11, 1931 vs. Philadelphia.
- The 49 total bases for Texas are a club record, 4 more than next-best mark of 45 total bases on Sept. 2, 2018 vs. Minnesota.

MULTIPLE INNINGS OF 9-OR-MORE RUNS IN A GAME, MAJOR LEAGUE HISTORY

- Rangers had 10 hits in the 6th inning, matching club record done one other time: May 17, 2001 vs. Cleveland (2nd inn.).
- Club's 21 singles were 3 more than previous team record of 18 (done 4 times).
- Team's 30 RBI are a major league record, although the statistic has only been tracked since 1920. Previous mark was 29 RBI by Boston-AL on June 8, 1950 vs. St. Louis-AL.
- The 5 runs scored by both David Murphy and Jarrod Saltalamacchia matched a team record. Saltalamacchia established a Rangers rookie record with 7 RBI in a game. Ramon Vazquez also had a career-high 7 RBI.
- It was the first time that 2 players on same team had 7 or more RBI in the same game since Aug. 19, 1962, when Yankees' Mickey Mantle (7) and Elston Howard (8) pulled the trick. Only instance since was the Dodgers' Matt Beaty (7) and AJ Pollock (8) on May 2, 2021 at Milwaukee.
- The Rangers were the first team with 4 players (Metcalf, Byrd, Saltalamacchia, Vazquez) with 4 RBI or more in the same game since a Phillies quartet (Rose, Maddox, Schmidt, Boone) did so on May 17, 1979 at Wrigley Field. That game was a 23-22 win for Philadelphia over the Cubs. Only instances since were by the Mets (6/27/12 at CHC), the Dodgers (8/2/18 vs. MIL), the Blue Jays (7/22/22 at BOS), and the Angels (6/24/23 at COL).
- It was the first time for Texas to have 2 grand slams in one game (Byrd and Metcalf) since July 4, 2004 at Houston (Mark Teixeira and Hank Blalock).
- Texas also won the 2nd game of the doubleheader 9-7, as the 39 runs scored by the Rangers in the twinbill is an American League record and a major league record for the modern era. Previous mark was 36 runs by Detroit vs. St. Louis-AL on Aug. 14, 1937. The NL record is 43 by Boston vs. Cincinnati on Aug. 21, 1894.
- The 33 combined runs was a club record until the Rangers' 19-17 defeat (36 total runs) on Aug. 12, 2008 at Boston.
- The 40 hits in a doubleheader remains a team record, 10 more than previous mark (30, Aug. 22, 1980 vs. Milwaukee).
- The 38 combined hits in the game matches a club record, also done June 28, 1996, Texas (16) at Seattle (22) and equaled on July 25, 2011, Minnesota (11) at Texas (27).
- Travis Metcalf's 8 RBI tied a Rangers record for RBI in a doubleheader, also done previously by Toby Harrah on June 25, 1976 vs. Chicago-AL, and by Bobby Bonds on June 23, 1978 vs. California.

 - Starter*

ALL-STAR TIDBITS

- The Rangers had 6 All-Stars for the 2023 game in Seattle, just the 3rd time in franchise history to feature at least 6 All-Stars (8-2012, 6-2010, 6-2023). The 2023 Rangers became just the 5th team in ASG history (beg. 1933) to have 5 position player starters, joining the 1939 Yankees, 1956 Reds, 1957 Reds, and 1976 Reds.
- In 2019, Joey Gallo became just the 21st player in ASG history to hit a home run in his first AS at-bat, the 19th to do it in his 1st AS plate appearance.
- Yu Darvish (2012-13-14) became the 2nd A.L. pitcher to ever be an All-Star in as many as his 1st 3 ML seasons (rookie status in year one), joining Jonathan Papelbon in his 1st 4 years with Boston (2006-09).
- A Texas player had a hit in 9 straight All-Star Games with a plate appearance from 2003-12, the lone exception being 2007, when Michael Young (Rangers' only All-Star that year) did not play. Beginning in 1998, a Ranger has had a hit in 18 of the last 27 All-Star Games.
- For the 2012 game in Kansas City, the Rangers set club records with: 8 total All-Stars, 5 position player selections, 3 pitcher selections, and 3 elected starters. It gave the Rangers the most active All-Stars (8) for one club since the 2004 Yankees (8).
- Adrian Beltré became the first Ranger ever elected to start an All-Star Game at third base in 2012 (although there had been 3 previous starts by Rangers at third base). Also in 2012, Mike Napoli joined Ivan Rodriguez (9) as the only Rangers to start a Classic behind the plate.
- In 2012, Yu Darvish became the 4th Rangers rookie selected, joining Jim Sundberg (1974), Jeff Zimmerman (1999), and Neftali Feliz (2010).
- The Rangers had at least one All-Star starter for 14 consecutive seasons from 1992-2005.
- Adrian Beltré (2, 2011-12), Josh Hamilton (5, 2008-12), Alex Rodriguez (3, 2001-03), and Ivan Rodriguez (9, 1993-2001) are the only Rangers to start more than one AS game.
- Michael Young is the only player with 2 game-winning RBI in the 9th inning or later in All-Star Game history dating to 1933 (2006 and 2008).
- Hank Blalock hit a game-winning, 2-run pinch HR off Eric Gagne in the bottom of the 8th inning to give the A.L. a 7-6 win in 2003 at Chicago's U.S. Cellular Field. He became the 12th player to homer in his first All-Star at-bat.
- Juan Gonzalez (1993) and Ruben Sierra (1989) won the Home Run Derby. Josh Hamilton finished second despite a record showing in 2008, and Nelson Cruz took second in 2009.
- Nolan Ryan became the oldest All-Star winner ever with his relief victory in 1989.
- Kevin Brown is the only Ranger pitcher to ever start an All-Star Game, winning the 1992 game.
- Six Texas managers have served as coaches in an All-Star game: Whitey Herzog - 1973, Billy Martin - 1975, Pat Corrales - 1979, Bobby Valentine - 1988, Johnny Oates - 1995, 1997, Ron Washington - 2007.
- In 1972 infielder Toby Harrah was named to the squad as a replacement for injured Luis Aparicio, becoming the first Ranger All-Star, but Harrah was injured and replaced by Bobby Grich.

MISCELLANEOUS STATS

RANGERS HITTING FOR THE CYCLE (11)

ODDIBE MCDOWELL (7/23/85) — Oddibe McDowell was the first player in Rangers' history to hit for the cycle, accomplishing that feat on July 23, 1985 vs. Cleveland at Arlington Stadium. McDowell doubled in the first inning, singled in the third and tripled in the fourth off starter Neal Heaton. He added another single in the sixth off Jeff Barkley and achieved the milestone with a solo HR off Tom Waddell in the eighth.

MARK TEIXEIRA (8/17/04) — On August 17, 2004 at Rangers Ballpark against Cleveland, Teixeira became the 2nd player in Rangers history to hit for the cycle in a game, the first in over 19 years. Teixeira struck out in the first inning and doubled in the third off Tribe starter Cliff Lee. He homered in the fourth inning and tripled in the fifth off Cleveland reliever Rick White. Teixeira completed his cycle with a seventh inning single off reliever Cliff Bartosh before being removed for a pinch runner. Notes: At the time, was the 14th switch-hitter in ML history to hit for the cycle, and had 2 hits from each side of the plate in his cycle, just the 3rd known switch-hitter to do so (no info for Otis Clymer).

GARY MATTHEWS JR. (9/13/06) — On September 13, 2006 at Comerica Park in Detroit, Gary Matthews Jr. became the 3rd player in Texas Rangers history to hit for the cycle in a game. He went 4-for-4 with 3 runs and 3 RBI, becoming the first Rangers player to hit for the cycle on the road. Matthews singled in the first inning, doubled in the second, and tripled to center field in the fourth off Tiger starter Justin Verlander. He completed the cycle in the rare "natural order" with a solo home run off LHP Mike Maroth on the first pitch to lead off the top of the sixth inning. Matthews became just the 14th player in major league history and seventh in the A.L. to hit for the cycle in natural order (1B, 2B, 3B, HR). Became the 19th switch-hitter in major league history to hit for the cycle.

IAN KINSLER (4/15/09) — On April 15, 2009 at Rangers Ballpark in Arlington, Ian Kinsler became the 4th player in team history to cycle in a game against Baltimore. He went 6-for-6 with 5 runs, 4 RBI, and 13 total bases, becoming the first player in the modern era (since 1900) to have a 6-hit cycle in a 9-inning game. Kinsler doubled in the first inning, homered in the third, and singled in the fourth off starter Mark Hendrickson. He singled again in the fourth off Radhames Liz, tripled in the sixth off Brian Bass, and doubled again in the eighth off Matt Albers. Notes: Established a club record for hits in a 9-inning game, and also matched club records for extra-base hits (4) and runs scored (5) in a single game…historic game occurred on Jackie Robinson Day throughout MLB, as he wore a nameless no. 42 jersey for the contest.

BENGIE MOLINA (7/16/10) — On July 16, 2010 at Fenway Park in Boston, Bengie Molina became the 5th player in team history to cycle. Molina singled in the second and doubled in the fourth off starter Felix Doubront. He then hit a grand slam in the fifth off Fernando Cabrera and tripled in the eighth off Ramon Ramirez to complete his cycle. He left the game with tightness in his right quadriceps after the triple. It was one of 4 cycles in the majors that season, the only one by an A.L. player. Notes: It was the 15th time a catcher has hit for the cycle, the first Ranger and first catcher ever with a cycle vs. the Red Sox…he was the 9th player, 8th since 1900, and first catcher ever with a grand slam as part of a cycle…was named A.L. Player of the Week for his efforts.

ADRIAN BELTRÉ (8/24/12) — On Aug. 24, 2012 at Rangers Ballpark against Minnesota, Adrian Beltré posted his second career cycle, the other coming with Seattle on Sept. 1, 2008 in Arlington. He became the first player in the modern era to cycle in the same park as both a home and visiting player. Beltré tripled in the first, doubled in the second, and homered in the fifth off starter Samuel Deduno. He then singled in the seventh off Kyle Waldrop to complete his cycle. Notes: Became just the second player in MLB history to have a 3-HR game and cycle in the same week, joining Joe DiMaggio in 1948…it was the first cycle by an A.L. player since Bengie Molina for Texas in 2010.

ALEX RIOS (9/23/13) — On Sept. 23, 2013 at Rangers Ballpark against Houston, Alex Rios recorded his first career cycle. Texas starter Derek Holland tossed a complete-game shutout in the 12-0 win. Elias Sports Bureau noted it was only the 5th time in a 100-year span for teammates to have a cycle and shutout in the same game, first instance since the 1998 A's (Jimmy Haynes/Mike Blowers). Rios had an RBI double in the first and infield single in the 3rd, both off starter Jordan Lyles. He hit a solo homer in the 5th, and triple to right-center in the 6th, both off David Martinez.

SHIN-SOO CHOO (7/21/15) — On July 21, 2015 at Coors Field against Colorado, Shin-Soo Choo recorded his first career cycle in the Rangers' 9-0 win. It was the 3rd time for a Texas batter to cycle in a shutout win, accounting for a 3rd consecutive instance. Choo doubled in the 2nd inning and homered in the 4th inning off Rockies starter Kyle Kendrick, then singled in the 5th inning against Yohan Flande. After grounding out versus Flande in the 7th, Choo led off the 9th with a triple against Rex Brothers to complete his cycle.

ADRIAN BELTRÉ (8/3/15) — Adrian Beltré became just the 4th player in MLB history with 3 career cycles (also Long John Reilly, Bob Meusel, Babe Herman) when he completed the feat on August 3, 2015 vs. Houston. Each of his 3 cycles came in Arlington, the only player ever to cycle 3 times in one park. He became the first batter with multiple cycles in a Texas uniform (also 8/24/12 vs. MIN). Beltré tripled in the first inning off starter Lance McCullers and doubled in the 2nd inning off Josh Fields. He also singled in the 3rd inning and homered in the 5th off Mike Fiers, becoming just the 6th player in the expansion era (since 1961) to hit for the cycle by the end of the 5th (credit Elias). It was the Rangers' 2nd cycle in a span of 2 weeks, the first time in club history with multiple cycles in a single season.

CARLOS GOMEZ (4/29/17) — Carlos Gomez registered his second career cycle on April 29, 2017 vs. Los Angeles-AL (also 5/7/08 at CWS), becoming just the fifth player in history to go at least 8 years between cycles (credit Elias). The others were Joe Cronin (1929-40), Joe DiMaggio (1937-48), George Brett (1979-90), and Chris Speier (1978-88). He doubled in the 1st inning, singled in the 3rd, and tripled in the 5th frame, all off Halos starter Jesse Chavez. He then hit a first-pitch home run off reliever Jose Valdez in the 7th, becoming the 4th Ranger ever with a 4-PA cycle (also Molina, Beltré in 2012, and Rios).

WYATT LANGFORD (6/30/24) — At 22 years, 228 days, Wyatt Langford became the youngest player in franchise history to hit for the cycle (prev. 22 years, 332 days – Oddibe McDowell on 7/23/85 vs. CLE) and the 2nd rookie (also McDowell), when he turned the trick on June 30, 2024 at Baltimore. The outfielder posted a triple (4th inn. off Cole Irvin), double (5th off Nick Vespi), single (6th off Dillon Tate), and 3-run home run (8th off Matt Krook) as part of a career-best 4-hit and 4-RBI (tied) showing at the plate. It marked the 1st-ever cycle to be completed in the 35-year history of ESPN's 'Sunday Night Baseball' and 2nd-ever cycle by a visiting player at Oriole Park at Camden Yards (est. 1992), joining TOR's Cavan Biggio on 9/17/19 at BAL. Langford's cycle made him the 1st rookie in MLB history to record a cycle, grand slam, and inside-the-park home run in a single season.

PITCHERS AND THE LONG BALL

On June 30, 1997, at Dodger Stadium, Texas pitcher Bobby Witt belted a solo home run off Ismael Valdez in the sixth inning of a 3-2 Rangers win. It was the first homer by an AL pitcher in a regular season game since Baltimore's Roric Harrison went deep on October 3, 1972 (G1) at Cleveland. In Game 4 of the 1974 World Series, Oakland's Ken Holtzman homered against the Dodgers. Witt hit the first home run by a Rangers pitcher since the franchise moved to Texas in 1972. The most recent homer by a pitcher in the franchise had been by Pete Broberg of the Washington Senators on September 19, 1971 vs. Boston at RFK Stadium.

Yu Darvish hit a home run on Aug. 24, 2016 at Cincinnati's Great American Ball Park off Tim Adleman in the fifth inning for the second and most recent long ball by a Texas pitcher. It snapped the Rangers' 19-year home run drought for pitchers, which had been the fifth-longest among all MLB clubs. Ian Desmond followed Darvish's blast with another home run, the first instance of an A.L. club hitting back-to-back home runs involving a pitcher since Tampa Bay on June 4, 2000 at New York-NL (Felix Martinez and Esteban Yan).

PITCHERS AT THE PLATE

When the designated hitter rule was in place from 1973-2021 (excluding 2020), 11 Rangers pitchers batted in a regular season American League game (listed below). Included in this list is an at-bat by David Murphy, who started in left field and ended the game as a pitcher on June 4, 2013 at Boston. While the DH rule was in place, Rangers pitchers combined to bat .125 (52-415) with 11 doubles, 2 triples, 2 home runs and 20 RBI (including Murphy).

PITCHER	DATE	OPPONENT	SITUATION	RESULT

Rick Helling became the 3rd (and most recent) 20-game winner in Texas Rangers history in 1998, posting a 20-7 record to tie Roger Clemens, David Cone and Tom Glavine for the Major League lead in victories. Other Rangers with 20 wins in a season are Fergie Jenkins (25-12 in 1974) and Kevin Brown (21-11 in 1992). Aaron Sele was 19-11 in 1998, joining Jim Bibby (19-19 in 1974) as the club's lone 19-game winners. The club record for wins by a left-hander is 18, a figure reached by both Kenny Rogers in 2004 and Matt Harrison in 2012.

BASEBALL'S FIRST INTERLEAGUE GAME

TEXAS VS. SAN FRANCISCO, JUNE 12, 1997, THE BALLPARK IN ARLINGTON

Game Time: 2 hours, 23 minutes Attendance: 46,507 (sellout)
Winning Pitcher: Mark Gardner Losing Pitcher: Darren Oliver Save: Rod Beck

The Rangers' first visit to a National League park occurred on June 17, 1997, when Texas played at Coors Field in Colorado. The Rangers defeated the Rockies 10-8 in 11 innings. John Burkett was the first Texas pitcher to start a game in the batting order against a National League club. He singled in his first at-bat.

HOME RUN RECORDS IN 2005

In an 18-3 victory over Houston on May 21, 2005, the Rangers established a club record with 8 home runs. It marked just the 10th time since divisional play began in 1969 that a team had hit 8-or-more home runs in a game, the first ever in interleague play, and was just the 15th team ever with 8-or-more homers in a single game. Texas hit club-record 4 home runs in the 2nd inning, tied for the most ever by a team in one inning of an interleague contest. All 4 Texas home runs in that 2nd inning came with 2 outs, just the 2nd time in American League history for a team to hit 4 home runs with 2 outs in a frame (also Boston, 4th inning on 7/18/98 at Detroit). With Houston's 2 home runs in the game, 9 different players homered, matching the A.L. record for individuals from both teams with at least one home run. The Rangers had 7 different players homer in the contest, matching an American League record (4th time). Texas would match the 8-homer record on June 30, 2005 in an 18-5 win over LA of Anaheim.

A MAJOR LEAGUE FIRST

The Rangers-Cubs game on June 18, 2002 at Wrigley Field marked the first time in major league history that as many as four players with 400 career home runs had appeared in the same game. The foursome consisted of Juan Gonzalez and Rafael Palmeiro from Texas, and Fred McGriff and Sammy Sosa of Chicago-NL.

GOLD GLOVES WITH POWER

In 2002, Alex Rodriguez became just the 4th player in major league history to hit 50-or-more home runs in a season while also earning a Gold Glove Award. Rodriguez belted 57 homers, the most ever by a Gold Glover, and recorded a .987 fielding percentage (10 E/741 TC). The others to do it were Willie Mays (1965 for San Francisco), Ken Griffey Jr. (1997 and 1998 for Seattle), and Andruw Jones (2005 for Atlanta).

FIVE WITH 25 HOME RUNS

In 2011, the Rangers featured 5 players with at least 25 home runs. It matches the 3rd-most 25-homer players by any club in major league history, also tying the club record that was first reached by the Rangers in 2005. There have been 18 teams in baseball history with at least 5 different 25-homer players in a season, but the Rangers (2005 and 2011), Red Sox (1977 and 2003), White Sox (2002 and 2012), Orioles (1996 and 2016), Reds (1956 and 2017), and Yankees (2009, 2018, and 2019) are the only franchises to do it twice.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

Johnson returns for his seventh season in the Texas organization and is back with the Round Rock staff in 2025 as a development coach, a role he has filled in each of the last four seasons. In 2022, he saw a brief stint as the Rangers' Major League first base coach and oversaw the outfield defense over the final three months of the regular season.

Johnson originally joined the Texas organization in 2019 as a 4th coach at then Low-A Hickory. He spent the canceled 2020 campaign primarily working with infielders in the Fall Developmental League after he was slated to manage at High-A Down East. Before coming to the Rangers, he spent one season as the San Diego Padres' Major League Infield Coach in 2018.

Johnson owns a career 110-113 (.493) record over three seasons as a minor league manager, most recently leading Hickory to a 46-68 mark in 2021. He previously skippered the Gulf Coast League Nationals in the Washington farm system from 2016-17, earning GCL Manager of the Year honors in 2017 after guiding the club to a runner-up finish. Under his guidance, outfielder Juan Soto was named GCL Most Valuable Player in 2016.

The switch-hitting infielder played professionally for 12 seasons in the Kansas City (2004-09) and Washington (2010-15) organizations. He finished his career with a .252 batting average, 35 home runs, 384 RBI, 131 stolen bases, and more walks (621) than strikeouts (614) over 1,069 minor league games, reaching as high as the Triple-A level. The Florida native was selected by the Royals in the 3rd round of the 2004 June draft out of Middleton (Fla.) High School. He was an All-America selection in baseball at Middleton and bypassed a full scholarship to the University of Texas to sign with the Royals.

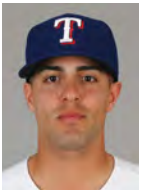
FRISCO ROUGHRIDERS (AA)



CARLOS CARDOZA | MANAGER

BORN: JAN. 19, 1987 IN SAN JUAN, PR RESIDES: WACO, TX

Cardoza, who was selected as the organization's 2024 Bobby Jones Player Development Award recipient, enters his third season as manager in Frisco after leading the RoughRiders to an 84-54 (.609) record and a playoff berth in 2024. The San Juan, Puerto Rico native helmed Frisco to a First Half Texas League South Division championship with a 44-25 (.638) mark, with the RoughRiders eventually falling to Midland in the 2024 Texas League Division Series. In eight seasons as a manager in the Texas farm system, Cardoza has compiled a lifetime 460-334 (.579) managerial record with the Dominican Summer League Rangers (2016-18), Arizona Complex League Rangers (2019), Down East (2021), Hickory (2022), and Frisco (2023-24), leading his club to the postseason on five occasions.

Cardoza has twice represented the Rangers in the Arizona Fall League, once as bench coach in 2023 and once as manager in 2024, claiming the AFL championship title for the Surprise Saguaros in both seasons.

In 2021 at Down East, he led the Wood Ducks to the Carolina League Championship Series. Originally slated to lead the organization's Low-A club in 2020 (Hickory), Cardoza instead coordinated camp and managed a group of prospects in the Fall Developmental League, with both Rangers entries combining to post a 29-10-5 record. RANGERS SPORTS NETWORK

Rangers Sports Network (RSN) is a company formed as the exclusive local television home of the Texas Rangers, overseeing production and distribution of the game broadcasts. Rangers Sports Network is available within the Rangers TV territory through select broadcast television, cable, satellite, and digital streaming platforms. RSN encompasses all aspects of game production, including the selection of on-air talent, camera and audio resources, direction of broadcast technical aspects, and behind-the-scenes staffing. RSN's production capabilities will also be utilized in content creation for in-game elements and other potential placement.

On January 27, 2025, the Texas Rangers announced that the organization formed a new business entity called Rangers Sports Media & Entertainment Company, and that the subsidiaries of the Company would include Rangers Sports Network (RSN), a new media venture created to produce and distribute the team's games and other content, as well as REV Entertainment.

The club appointed Neil Leibman to serve as Chairman, Rangers Sports Media & Entertainment Company, and promoted Jim Cochrane to Executive Vice President and Chief Business Officer of the Rangers.

The Rangers announced on January 28 the details for the club's 2025 television game broadcasts on Rangers Sports Network, giving fans options to access local game broadcasts through traditional carriers, the Victory+ app, and a package of free over-the-air games.

Rangers Sports Network partnered with several traditional cable and digital television providers which will carry the team's game broadcasts for the 2025 season. The current list of partners slated to televise the Rangers this season includes DIRECTV satellite, satellite-free streaming, and U-verse, as well as Spectrum. Each distributor will house a specific channel for RSN and that individual channel will go live for the club's pregame show, the game broadcast, and postgame productions. Traditional providers' customers will have the ability to authenticate through Victory+ for access to the streaming platform.

It was announced on January 15 that the Rangers would partner with APMC, owner of Victory+, on a deal that will make Victory+ the direct-to-consumer streaming home for the approximately 150 Texas Rangers regional television broadcasts beginning in 2025. Fans in the Rangers' television territory will be able to purchase a Season Pass to watch games on Victory+ for just $100, granting them access to the full season of Rangers baseball, including select Spring Training games in March.

The Rangers are providing fans with free over-the-air (OTA) games this season, the first time the club has included OTA games in its TV package since 2014. The club's initial television schedule has 15 OTA broadcasts, nearly all for home Friday contests, the first being the club's second regular season game on Friday, March 28 vs. Boston.

Rangers Sports Network has agreements with Nexstar Media Group and Gray Media, both of which will carry the games to OTA stations in 26 of the Rangers' television territory's 31 metered markets in Texas, Arkansas, Oklahoma, and Louisiana. Nexstar-owned KDAF-TV, CW33, will serve as the Rangers' flagship station in the Dallas-Ft. Worth area and carry OTA game broadcasts in the market.

ELENO ORNELAS

SPANISH RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY

Eleno Ornelas is in his 26th season as a radio broadcaster for all Rangers Spanish broadcasts, his 23rd as the lead play-by-play announcer. He has the second longest tenure of any radio broadcaster in Rangers' history behind Eric Nadel (47th season in 2025).

He was presented with the 2014 Golden Microphone Award from the National Association of Mexico Broadcasters, the organization's highest award. Ornelas began his broadcasting career at KRVA Radio in Dallas in 1993 before moving to KESS-AM as a full-time sports announcer in 1998. He joined the Rangers organization as a full-time employee in 2003. In addition to the Rangers, Ornelas has done radio play-by-play for the Dallas Mavericks and covered the Dallas Cowboys and Dallas Burn during his tenure with KESS. He currently does Spanish radio broadcasts for Oklahoma City Thunder home games.

Ornelas is a native of Juarez, Mexico and was a professional baseball announcer in his home country before coming to Texas. He has an extensive background as an administrator in the Mexican amateur baseball leagues in North Texas, serving as President of the Dallas League from 1993-98.

JOSE GUZMAN

SPANISH RADIO COLOR

Jose Guzman is in his 17th year over two different stints as the lead Spanish radio analyst for Rangers home games and occasional play-by-play announcer. The former Major League pitcher originally served in that role from 2004-09 before rejoining the broadcast team in 2015. Guzman also provided analysis on the Rangers Spanish home television broadcasts from 2010-13. In addition to his broadcast work, Guzman makes appearances in the community on behalf of the Rangers.

Guzman compiled an 80-74 record in 193 career appearances with the Rangers and Cubs from 1985-93. He won 11-or-more games four times with Texas and was the team's Pitcher of the Year and A.L. Comeback Player of the Year in 1991. Shoulder injuries plagued him for much of his career, although he came out of retirement to pitch for the Independent Fort Worth Cats in 2001 and 2002.

In January 2020, Guzman was inducted into Latin American International Sports Hall of Fame in Laredo, Texas.

GLOBE LIFE FIELD

The Texas Rangers made the move to a beautiful new ballpark in 2020. Globe Life Field, which was built as a public-private partnership between the City of Arlington and the Rangers, is not only the team's home but also a multipurpose sports and entertainment venue that includes capabilities for hosting numerous local, regional, and national events.

With the 2024 Major League Baseball All-Star Game, Globe Life Field has now played host to a Midsummer Classic and two World Series in its first five years of existence. The facility hosted games 1 and 2 of 2024 Fall Classic between the Rangers and Arizona Diamondbacks, as well as all six games of the 2020 neutral site World Series between the Los Angeles Dodgers and Tampa Bay Rays.

Globe Life Field and the reconfigured Choctaw Stadium complement and enhance several other major development projects in the Arlington Entertainment District that have been completed since 2018, including Texas Live! (August 2018), Live! by Loews-Arlington Hotel (September 2019), Spark Arlington Coworking (January 2023), and Loews Arlington Hotel and Convention Center (February 2024).

Other major facilities in the District include One Rangers Way, a first-of-its kind luxury residential community that opened in January 2025, and the National Medal of Honor Museum, which is set to open March 25, 2025.

Globe Life Field is the third home park for the Texas Rangers. After moving to Texas for the 1972 season, the franchise played at Arlington Stadium through 1993. The Ballpark in Arlington, which was later known as Ameriquest Field, Rangers Ballpark, and ultimately Globe Life Park in Arlington, was the team's home from 1994-2019.

LOCATION: The street address for Globe Life Field is 734 Stadium Drive, Arlington, TX 76011, a tribute to the jersey numbers of two Rangers' Hall of Famers Ivan Rodriguez (#7) and Nolan Ryan (#34). It is located on a 13-acre site just south of Choctaw Stadium on property that was previously parking for that ballpark. Globe Life Field is bordered by Randol Mill Road on the north, Stadium Drive on the east, Cowboys Way on the south, and Johnson Creek on the west.

HISTORY: The Rangers and the City of Arlington announced the master agreement for a new ballpark partnership on May 20, 2016, with unanimous approval for the agreement coming from the Arlington City Council on May 24, 2016. Arlington's ballpark bonds to finance the project were approved by voters in a City referendum on November 8, 2016. The Rangers and Globe Life And Accident Insurance Company (Globe Life) announced an extension of their naming rights partnership that established Globe Life Field as the name for the new ballpark on August 24, 2017. The official groundbreaking for Globe Life Field took place on September 28, 2017, with construction being completed in less than 30 months. Globe Life Field was originally scheduled to open with a Chris Stapleton concert on March 14, 2020, and the Rangers first regular season game on March 31, 2020. With the suspension of all public events in mid-March due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the first public event was the graduation of Irving's Jack E. Singley Academy on May 29, 2020. The Rangers first regular season game was played on July 24, 2020 versus the Colorado Rockies.

COST: The project cost for Globe Life Field was approximately $1.25 billion. The master agreement for this public-private partnership calls for a 50-50 split between the Texas Rangers and the City of Arlington, with the City's financial contribution capped at $500 million. The City's contribution will be funded by a ½ cent sales tax, 2% hotel tax, and a 5% car rental tax. The Texas Rangers' original 30-year lease on the City-owned Globe Life Park in Arlington was set to end in 2024. With the new master agreement, the Rangers' partnership with Arlington extends until January 1, 2054.

SIZE: Globe Life Field measures 1.8 million square feet, 400,000 square feet more than Globe Life Park. At its highest point, GLF is 230 feet from the playing field to the top of the retractable roof. Each exterior side measures 785 by 815 feet. The park has six entry points, the Northwest, TXU North, Comerica Northeast, Southeast, Toyota Southwest, and two VIP entries on the West side.

RETRACTABLE ROOF: The 5.5 acre retractable roof is one of the most prominent features of Globe Life Field and provides shade and cooler temperature 365 days a year, keeping the average temperature at approximately 72 degrees. It is the largest single-panel operable roof in the world and weighs 24 million pounds. The roof is comprised by a white rubber membrane on the north and south sloped planes, and the flat center is covered with 223 clear panels made of ETFE (ethylene tetrafluoroethylene), a transparent plastic polymer related material, allowing for natural light to fill the entire facility. The roof structure consists of five steel trusses and tie-in steel between each truss, and its construction required 19,000 tons of steel. The roof can open in approximately 12 minutes. Globe Life Field is the 12th full-time park in MLB history with either a fixed roof or retractable roof. On that list, eight of the 12 are now active ballparks, with seven of those eight being retractable roof stadiums (lone fixed dome is Tropicana Field). MLB games have also been staged at Japan's Tokyo Dome in 2000, 2004, 2008, 2012, and 2019.

OPEN AND SHUT IN 2024: Of the 81 regular season games at Globe Life Field in 2024, 7 were played with the roof open, with Texas going 3-4 in those contests.

PLAYING FIELD: Synthetic Grass: Globe Life Field features a specially designed synthetic grass playing surface that was provided by Shaw Sports Turf with installation completed by Texas-based Paragon Sports Constructors. The choice to go with Shaw Sports Turf was rooted in data, and supported by extensive research as it relates to player safety. The goal was not to only have the highest performing synthetic grass but also to have the highest performing surface for baseball. GLF's playing surface is the B1K natural system, which employs a natural, sustainable infill called Geofill. The system results in excellent ball surface and player surface interaction. B1K is a dual fiber turf system comprised of Shaw's high-performance Strenexe® XD slit film and Bolt® monofilament. This system provides excellent durability and functionality by minimizing the infill from "splashing," maintaining adequate infill levels across the field. The Bolt fiber provides realistic ball roll, friction, and natural grass aesthetics. The Geofill infill used in the system is made of coconut husks and fibers, which is a rapidly renewable resource. The infill requires much less water than natural grass.

A concrete subsurface is the base of the turf system, which is extremely flat to accommodate the turf system, its buildup and layers, a drainage mat, and a shock-resistant mat. The infield and warning track will be clay surfaces, There is also a retractable mound for easy storage during non-baseball events on the field.

FIELD DIMENSIONS: The distances from home plate to the outfield walls were designed to honor the five Rangers whose numbers have been retired by the club. In addition, the distances in the left field and right field power alleys recognize two early seasons in Rangers' history.

GLOBE LIFE FIELD DIMENSIONS

Left Field Line: 329 feet (Adrian Beltré's #29)
Left Field Power Alley: 372 feet (Rangers' first year in Arlington--1972)
Center Field (straightaway): 407 feet (Iván Rodríguez' #7)
Deepest Distance of Park (both left and right of straightaway CF): 410 feet (Michael Young's #10)
Right Field Power Alley: 374 (The Turnaround Gang, 57 to 84 wins--1974)
Right Field Line: 326 feet (Johnny Oates' #26)

In addition, there is a distance marker in left field at 334 feet from home plate to recognize Nolan Ryan's #34. The distance from home plate straight back to the wall of the Field Suites is 42 feet, which honors Jackie Robinson's #42.

The outfield walls are eight feet in height except for in front of the two bullpens (six feet) and in right-center field (10 feet). The batter's eye structure in centerfield is 120 feet in length and 40 feet high.

The Rangers' bullpen is situated in right field with the visiting bullpen in left field. Texas' dugout is on the first base side, and the visiting team utilizes the third base dugout. The playing field orientation (line from home plate to pitcher's mound to second base) at Globe Life Field runs East Northeast as opposed to East Southeast at both Arlington Stadium and Globe Life Park.

With Globe Life Field's retractable roof closed, the distance from home plate to the bottom of the roof truss is 193', 10", and the distance from second base to the bottom of the roof truss is 210', 6". The bottom of the right field video board, which measures 58 feet high and 150 feet long, is 131', 4" from the warning track.

SEATING: The overall capacity of Globe Life Field is 40,518 on seven seating levels. The facility was designed to bring fans "closer to the action" from every seat. The distance from the main concourse to the field is just 160 feet, compared to 174 feet at Globe Life Park. The distance from the upper concourse to the field is just 184 feet, compared to 207 feet at Globe Life Park.

Globe Life Field gives fans not only up-close and interesting vantage points to watch the game but also spectacular views, both inside and outside of the ballpark. Fans walking along the main concourse can enjoy a 360-degree unobstructed view of the field, and that is also the case on the majority of the upper concourse.

Transparent building materials appear all around Globe Life Field to create the ballpark's wide-open views and let in natural light. In addition to panels of ETFE in the roof, there are other translucent panels around the ballpark, and glass can be found on all four sides of the ballpark. The park provides a unique seating experience for all fans. Globe Life Field features some of the top premium seating in Major League Baseball. There are 12 field suites located directly behind home plate as well as low-level club seating down both the first and third base lines.

The park has 71 long-term Founders, Legacy, and Classic Suites and 16 Party Suites that can accommodate from 30 to 420 individuals. The Lexus Home Plate Club, American Airlines First Base Dugout Lounge, Germania Insurance Third Base Lounge, Balcones Speakeasy, and First Base Club provide numerous food and beverage options for premium seat holders.

Seats in all levels at Globe Life Field measure at least 20 inches in width as compared to 18 inches in Globe Life Park. The tread widths of the seating bowl are also wider than at the old park, measuring 34 inches in the lower bowl and 33 inches in the upper deck.

MATERIALS: A number of different materials, the majority of which were produced in Texas, that reflect the elements of form and structure, transparency, and landscape, were used on interior and exterior construction of Globe Life Field. These include:

Steel – Irwin Steel – Justin, Texas
Brick – Acme Brick – Denton, Texas
Curtainwall System – OldCastle – Alba, Texas
Masonry Veneer – ACME – Denison, Texas
Precast Walls – Enterprise – Corsicana, Texas
Limestone – Mezger – Lampasas, Texas
Granite – Coldspring – Cold Spring, Minnesota
Three Layer ETFE – Vector-Foiltec – Germany
All Metal Panels – Centria – Sheridan, Arkansas
Insulated Translucent Panels – CPI Daylighting – Lake Forest, Illinois

One of the most prominent architectural features at Globe Life Field are the brick arches that run along the ballpark's north façade. These arches are reminiscent of the exterior of Globe Life Park.

VIDEO BOARDS: There are two main video boards at Globe Life Field. The largest board towers over right field and measures approximately 58 feet high by 150 feet wide. The display in left field measures 40 feet high by 111 feet wide. Together, the two video boards provide fans with 13,000 square feet of entertainment and information. These displays feature a total of 5.2 million pixels for high-resolution images and it would take 1,220 60-inch televisions to cover both displays.

Both outfield boards are capable of variable content zoning allowing each to show one large image or to be divided into multiple zones to show any combination of live video, instant replays, up-to-the-minute statistics, graphics, and sponsorship messages.

There is also a centerfield video board that measures 80 feet high by 20 feet wide to provide additional information, including out-of-town scores. The modules for this display were previously utilized in the left field video board at Globe Life Park.

Spanning the length of the seating fascia from foul pole to foul pole, a ribbon display measures 2.5 feet high by 925 feet long. On the suite level fascia, a ribbon display measures 3.5 feet high by 211 feet long. Two displays using 6-millimeter line spacing are installed on the field level suite fascia behind home plate.

Daktronics of Brookings, SD has continued its long relationship with the Rangers to provide Globe Life Field's LED displays and approximately 1,400 LCD for an IPTV (Internet Protocol Television) system. The LED displays and all LCDs are fully integrated using Daktronics Show Control System.

The public address booth at Globe Life Field is located on the main concourse behind home plate, a first for current Major League ballparks. The booth has glass walls so fans are able to view and interact with Rangers Executive Vice President, Ballpark Entertainment & Productions Chuck Morgan, who has also served as the club's public address announcer since 1983.

OUTSIDE GLOBE LIFE FIELD The Rangers pay tribute to their history outside the gates of Globe Life Field. Statues of Nolan Ryan and Tom Vandergriff, which were dedicated in the centerfield plaza at Globe Life Park in 1997, were relocated prior to the start of the 2020 season. The Ryan statue was placed in the large Rangers Plaza area which is adjacent to the park's North entrance and Texas Live!. The 100,000 square foot plaza also includes an interactive water feature that measures 60 feet, 6 inches in diameter, the same distance from a pitching rubber to home plate.

The Vandergriff statue, which honors the man who was responsible for bringing the Rangers franchise to North Texas, Arlington Mayor Tom Vandergriff, was relocated outside Globe Life Field's Northeast entrance. That area also features Going to the Series, a statue which depicts Neftali Feliz and Bengie Molina embracing after the Rangers defeated the New York Yankees in Game 6 at the 2010 ALCS to advance to their first World Series. This statue was originally dedicated in Rangers Plaza in August 2018.

A new addition in 2020 was a seven-foot statue of Hall of Fame catcher Ivan Rodriguez outside the Southwest entrance, which appropriately enough, is the access behind home plate.

In 2024, it was announced that a statue honoring third baseman and 2024 National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee Adrián Beltré would be unveiled in 2025. The announcement coincided with an on-field ceremony prior to the Rangers' August 17 game vs. the Minnesota Twins during which Beltré's Hall of Fame plaque was displayed.

In addition, there are plaques honoring former Tarrant County Commissioner C.H. "Punch" Wright, former Arlington Mayors Richard Greene and Jeff Williams, and Vandergriff outside the Northeast entrance. Wright joined Vandergriff in the efforts to build the original Turnpike Stadium in Arlington in the 1960's, Greene was a catalyst in the building of The Ballpark in Arlington in the early 1990's, and Williams was instrumental in the effort to build Globe Life Field.

THE BALLPARK DESIGN AND CONSTRUCTION TEAM Nationally renowned sports and entertainment design firm HKS was the architect for Globe Life Field. HKS, which has its main headquarters in Dallas, served as architect-of-record on then The Ballpark in Arlington (now Globe Life Park in Arlington), which opened in 1994. Manhattan Construction Company was the project's General Contractor after previously serving in that role for The Ballpark in Arlington. Approximately 5,000 individuals over the 30 months worked almost six million man hours to build Globe Life Field.

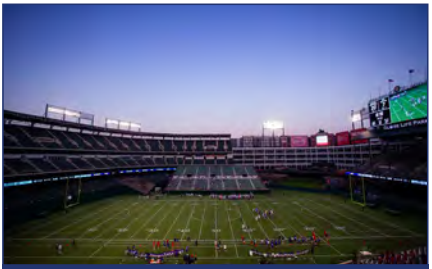
CHOCTAW STADIUM



Choctaw Stadium, which was the home of the Texas Rangers from 1994-2019, now serves as a multi-purpose event venue operated by the Rangers.

The Texas Rangers home for 26 seasons from 1994-2019, Globe Life Park in Arlington hosted 2,081 regular season and 25 playoff games, including the 2010 and 2011 World Series. Major League Baseball's 66th All-Star Game was played there on July 11, 1995, and the first Interleague Game in MLB history featured the Rangers hosting the San Francisco Giants on July 12, 1997.

When the Rangers and New York Yankees closed the baseball life of Globe Life Field on September 29, 2019, a total of 66,005,370 fans had attended regular season and postseason season games at the venue.

Following the 2019 baseball season, Globe Life Park in Arlington was reconfigured from a baseball to a multi-purpose facility. In August 2021, the Rangers and Choctaw Casinos & Resorts expanded its partnership to include a naming rights agreement for the facility to be called Choctaw Stadium going forward.

Since the spring of 2020, Choctaw Stadium has been the site of UFL pro football (2024-25), XFL pro football (2020/2023), Major League Rugby (2022-24), MLS Next Pro soccer (2020-25), and more than 120 college and Texas UIL high school football games (2020-24). Additional sports and entertainment events are scheduled throughout the year.

Details of the Choctaw Stadium 2019 repurposing:

PLAYING FIELD: The football field and soccer pitch were built to run north and south along what was previously the first base/right field side of the park. The third base dugout and the lower 18 rows of the third base seating bowl (approximately 6,000 total seats) were removed to accommodate the north end of the field. The south end zone of the field begins approximately 50 feet out from the front row of the Home Run Porch in order to improve sightlines on the south side. The first base dugout remains with the tunnel being used for access to the home locker rooms. A tunnel was constructed in the north end zone for access to the visiting and officials locker rooms.

FIELD SURFACE: The playing surface is synthetic grass field provided by Shaw Sports Turf with installation completed by Paragon Sports Constructors. The Rangers also utilized a state-of the art synthetic grass field in Globe Life Field. The permanent field surface is unmarked to allow for seamless field conversion. The appropriate field lines are added for each event.

ADDITIONAL SEATING: While the current first base bowl provides the majority of the seating on the west side of the field, a permanent seating structure was constructed on the field's east side in the area that was previously left field, the visiting bullpen, and the left field reserved seating area. Approximately 4,000 seats were added below the left field club level. The new configuration provides access to rest rooms and concessions on Vandergriff Plaza.

LOCKER ROOMS: The former Texas Rangers clubhouse on the first base side was renovated to accommodate approximately 60 football players in the main dressing area. Two new auxiliary locker rooms were built in the area that previously housed the Rangers' and visiting batting cages. Each locker room can accommodate up to 80 players. This allows for the hosting of multiple events and teams on the same day.

SBL Architecture of Arlington, which has its offices at Choctaw Stadium and has been involved in many of the facility's renovations over the years, designed the reconfiguration of the park. The project's general contractor was Manhattan Construction, which built The Ballpark in Arlington in the early 1990's as well as Globe Life Field.

SIZE AND AMENITIES: Choctaw Stadium contains approximately 1,400,000 square feet. The park measures 114 feet from street level to the top of the roof canopy. The facility also includes a four-story office building within the stadium and the 12-acre Mark Holtz Lake on the perimeter. One of the signature features of Choctaw Stadium is the four-story office building that encloses the structure south and east quadrants. The office building has 35,000 square feet on each level. Spark Arlington, a collaborative coworking community, opened in January 2023 and occupies 30,000 square feet on the second and third floors. Six Flags Entertainment Corporation has its corporate offices on the fourth floor, which was previously occupied by the Texas Rangers. The Arlington Convention & Visitors Bureau moved its offices to street level space in Choctaw Stadium in the spring of 2022. Heresay Arlington, a restaurant and lounge located in the former All You Can Eat space on the fourth floor, opened for business in February 2023. A Starbucks location opened on the west concourse in September 2023 and El Tiempo, a restaurant featuring Tex-Mex offerings, opened on the southwest concourse in July 2024.

THE BALLPARK IN ARLINGTON HISTORY: In 1994 a new era for the Texas Rangers began with the opening of The Ballpark in Arlington. The facility was completed in just 23 months. The 48,114- seat open-air park was designed and built with tradition and intimacy in mind, containing features such as a granite and brick facade, exposed structural steel, an asymmetrical playing field, and a home run porch in right field. Texas architecture is featured throughout, from the outer facade to the Lone Stars in the concourses and on the seat aisles.

The agreement between the Rangers and the City of Arlington, Texas to build a new ballpark was announced on October 24, 1990. Actual construction began on April 24, 1992. The ballpark was originally named The Ballpark in Arlington on September 28, 1993. The first game was an exhibition contest between the Rangers and New York Mets on April 1, 1994 with the first regular season game played on April 11, 1994 between the Rangers and Milwaukee Brewers.

From May 7, 2004 until March 18, 2007 the ballpark was named Ameriquest Field in Arlington as a part of an agreement between the Texas Rangers and Ameriquest Mortgage Company. The agreement ended and the company returned the naming rights to the team on March 19, 2007 with the facility being renamed Rangers Ballpark in Arlington. On February 5, 2014, the Rangers and Globe Life Accident and Insurance Company announced a partnership that renamed the facility Globe Life Park in Arlington.

The revised cost of the overall project was approximately 191 million dollars. The financing was derived from $135 million in bonds issued by the Arlington Sports Facilities Development Authority with the remaining equity raised through the sale or lease of luxury boxes and seat options in the new ballpark, loans guaranteed by the Rangers, the concessions contract with Sportservice and city street funds. Annual debt service for the municipal bonds was provided by public private sharing. That is comprised of a $3.5 million rental payment from the Rangers and a one-half cent City of Arlington sales tax. The sales tax was approved in an Arlington municipal election by a 65 percent majority on January 19, 1991, and expired when the debt was retired in November, 2001. The Rangers have a lease with the City of Arlington, and REV Entertainment maintains and operates the entire facility with the reconfiguration.

ARCHITECTURAL DESIGN TEAM: Design Architect: David M. Schwarz Architectural Services of Washington, D.C. was the design architect on the project. Schwarz was selected from among 17 architects who originally made presentations in August 1991. He has been involved in a number of projects in Texas including the Bass Performance Hall, Cook-Fort Worth Children's Medical Center, Sundance West, and most recently Dickies Arena, all in Fort Worth. His imaginative design of the park reflects a traditional look of older ballparks and includes a major Texas influence. Architect of Record: Dallas-based HKS, Inc.

ARLINGTON STADIUM (1965-1993)

Professional baseball has had a long and glorious history in the Dallas-Fort Worth area, but it was the construction of a stadium in Arlington, Texas that led to the region joining the major leagues.

Both Dallas and Fort Worth entered organized baseball in 1886 and were Texas League rivals for most of the next 72 years. The Dallas entry moved to a park in Oak Cliff in 1919, and remained at that site through several reconstruction efforts, becoming Burnett Field in 1948. Fort Worth's ballpark was built on the east side of Main St. in 1926, called LaGrave Field. It was rebuilt after a fire in 1949.

Burnett and LaGrave Fields were the sites of countless memorable games over the years, but major league baseball was the ultimate goal, and area leaders knew the two cities would have to join together to make this a reality. In 1959, both Dallas and Fort Worth left the Texas League and combined to put a franchise in the class AAA American Association. That year, plans for a park to serve both cities in Arlington were first advanced, when the co-owners of the area's American Association franchise, J.W. Bateson and Amon Carter, Jr. envisioned a team in the projected Continental League.

With that in mind, in the fall of 1959, the Texas Legislature authorized the formation of a Bi-County Sports Committee empowered to issue $9.5 million in revenue bonds for the construction of a major league stadium pending voter approval, which took place.

American League expansion a year later ended plans for the third major league, and delays for the new stadium occurred. The options on the stadium site in Arlington were permitted to expire. But the efforts of Arlington Mayor Tom Vandergriff, who had a key role in bringing the Washington Senators to Texas in the fall of 1971, brought the stadium project back to life. In April, 1964, Vandergriff, chairman of the Sports Committee, sponsored a Tarrant County bond election which authorized construction of the stadium and provided for purchase of the land by the county. The 137-acre tract was located just north of the former Arlington Downs race track and just south of the Dallas-Fort Worth Turnpike in what was known as the Great Southwest Industrial Development Complex.

Construction began in November, 1964, and despite weather delays, Turnpike Stadium was dedicated on April 23, 1965, when the Dallas-Fort Worth Spurs played their Texas League home opener. The 10,600-seat ballpark cost $1.5 million and was built as the nucleus of a major league stadium, designed for expanded seating capacity to as many 50,000-55,000 with bleachers and a second deck. Parking was provided for 2,500 cars with potential expansion to 10,000. The stadium was built in a natural bowl, with a playing surface 40 feet below the surrounding ground, which was projected at the time to save millions of dollars in excavation costs.

As the efforts to bring major league baseball to Arlington intensified, Vandergriff knew an expansion of Turnpike Stadium was vital to show the area's interest to perspective big league franchises. This became possible in early 1970, when the City of Arlington, with approval of its residents via an election, purchased the stadium from Tarrant County and began an expansion. Turnpike Stadium was enlarged to seat 21,000 for the 1971 Texas League season with an expansion of seats down the left and right field lines.

A dream was realized on September 22, 1971, when American League owners voted to transfer the Washington Senators franchise to Arlington, Texas for the 1972 season. That required further expansion to meet American League stadium capacity requirements. Bleacher and outfield seats were built from foul line to foul line, increasing capacity to 35,694. Other facilities were also upgraded, including additional field lighting, the building of new press facilities and the construction of a 200 by 60 foot scoreboard behind the left field stands. That board was highlighted by a 60 by 60 foot area in the shape of the state of Texas. Field dimensions set for 1972 were: 330 feet down the left and right field lines, and 400 feet to straightaway center.

The ballpark was renamed Arlington Stadium, and after a players' strike cancelled the original April 6 opener, the Texas Rangers defeated the California Angels, 7-6, in the first major league regular season game ever in Arlington on April 21, 1972 before a crowd of 20,105. Arlington Stadium recorded its first capacity crowd on June 27, 1973, when Houston high school sensation and the nation's top draft pick, left-hander David Clyde made his professional debut for the Rangers, pitching five strong innings against Minnesota.

Arlington Stadium underwent numerous changes over the years. The Rangers' home clubhouse was located behind the centerfield seats through the 1972 season, when a new building was constructed behind first base. The seating was expanded to 41,284 after the 1977 season with the construction of the upper deck, known as the plaza.

A $12 million improvement took place prior to the opening of the 1984 campaign. A wall extending 30 feet above the top of the outfield bleachers was constructed from foul line to foul line, a distance of 1,100 feet, and featured state-of-the-art video and scoreboards. This wall drastically reduced the effects of the swirling crosswinds blowing into the park as home run production increased from 78 in 1983 to 125 in 1984.

In addition, 54 additional luxury suites were built on two levels, an auxiliary press box, dark rooms, a gift shop, and concession stands were added, and seating was expanded in the lower box seat areas to increase stadium capacity to 43,508. Some seat alterations in 1990 lifted Arlington Stadium to 43,521.

The Rangers assumed full authority over the stadium from the City of Arlington in August 1983 and purchased the ballpark from the City in November, 1987.

The natural grass, open air stadium remained primarily a baseball-only facility over the years. The only regular non-baseball tenant was the University of Texas-Arlington, which played its football games at Arlington Stadium in 1972 and 1973.

When it finally closed its doors at the end of the 1993 season, Arlington Stadium had been the site of 1,750 American League games with nearly 32 million people in attendance for those contests. The demolition of Arlington Stadium was completed in the fall of 1994. The National Medal of Honor Museum, a spectacular new exhibit on the Arlington Stadium site, is scheduled for its grand opening on March 25, 2025 (see below).

SURPRISE, ARIZONA
SPRING TRAINING HOME OF THE TEXAS RANGERS

2025 will mark the 23rd season that the Texas Rangers have held their Major and Minor League Spring Training in Surprise, Arizona, the longest span in club history. Texas trained in Pompano Beach, FL from 1972-86 (15 years) and in Port Charlotte, FL from 1987-2002 (16 years). Pompano Beach was also the spring home of the expansion Washington Senators from 1961-71.

The complex in Surprise, which is located northwest of Phoenix in Maricopa County, is shared by the Rangers and Kansas City Royals and is located on a 132-acre site. It opened in September of 2002 for Texas' Arizona Instructional League program.

The Rangers Arizona baseball complex building comprises approximately 49,500 square feet that houses clubhouse, training, medical, and dining facilities for both the Major and Minor League operation. There is also 3,600 square-foot multi-purpose meeting facility adjacent to the complex building.

The Rangers and Royals play their home games at Surprise Stadium/ Billy Parker Field, a beautiful 10,714- seat ballpark. Surprise Stadium includes a lower seating bowl, an upper level with 530 club seats, six suites, and adjoining party decks, and seating for approximately 3,000 on the outfield berm.

Field dimensions of Surprise Stadium are 350 feet down the left and right field lines, 379 feet to left and right center, and 400 feet to straightaway center. The outfield fences are eight feet high. The Rangers utilize the first base dugout with the Royals on the third base side.

Both the Rangers and Royals have six full practice fields and a half field for use by the major and Minor League teams. Each team has one full field with lights with that field having the exact dimensions of its home park (Globe Life Park in Arlington for the Rangers; Kauffman Stadium for the Royals). Four of the fields for each team are in a cloverleaf configuration with an observation tower centrally located.

The facility is owned and maintained by the City of Surprise and was originally constructed by funds approved with the passing of Proposition 302, a 30-year funding plan which generates funds for sports, recreation, and tourism in Maricopa County. The proposition was passed by County voters on November 7, 2000, a week after the Rangers announced plans to open negotiations with the City of Surprise. The agreement on a 20-year lease between the Rangers and Surprise was announced on March 23, 2001 with the groundbreaking ceremony taking place on May 21, 2001. The facility was dedicated on December 7, 2002. Both teams agreed to a seven-year extension of the lease through 2029 in 2015.

Rangers Village, a baseball housing and meeting facility opened in January 2020. The multi-story, 68,280 square-foot facility includes housing for Rangers' organizational players and staff as well as classroom and meeting space. It will be utilized throughout the year for spring training, extended spring, Arizona rookie league, instructional league and other baseball programs.

Rangers Village is located directly across from the Rangers' baseball complex and Surprise Stadium. It consists of a two-story common area building which is attached to a three-story residential building. The common area measures 12,753 square feet and includes a lobby/ reception, dining area, recreation room, and outdoor patio space on the first floor. The second floor of the common area houses an auditorium, classrooms, and fitness area. The residential building measures 53,527 square feet and includes 36 units that can house up to 180 individuals at one time.
